NEW TREATY WITH JAPAN

SAN FRANCISCO, DEC. 6.—THE SAN FRANCISCO BOARD OF EDUCATION WILL STAND BY ITS DECISION TO CONFINED THE JAPANESE SCHOOL CHILDREN TO THE ORIENTAL SCHOOL. THE SENTIMENTS OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, AS EXPRESSED IN HIS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS, WILL NOT AFFECT THEIR POSITION, ACCORDING TO PRESIDENT ALTMANN OF THE BOARD,

WHO ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT THE BOARD WILL DO ALL IN ITS POWER TO CORRECT THE IMPRESSION GIVEN OUT BY THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE WHICH SAYS THE JAPANESE ARE EXCLUDED FROM THE SAN FRANCISCO PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

TOKIO, DEC. 6.—MOST OF THE PAPERS HERE

HIGHLY EULOGIZE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S ATTITUDE TOWARD THE JAPANESE AS EXPRESSED IN HIS MESSAGE. THE ASAHI IS DELIGHTED THAT THE CONFIDENCE REPOSED IN THE PRESIDENT HAS BEEN REALIZED. IT SAYS:

"BY HIS FIRM ATTITUDE, PROMPTED BY A LOFTY SENSE OF JUSTICE, PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT HAS ADDED NEW LUSTRE TO HIS ALREADY GREAT FAME. IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT TRUE AMERICANS WILL UNITE IN SUPPORT OF HIS RIGHTEOUS POLICY." THE HOCHI PRAISES PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S ATTITUDE AS JUST AND IMPARTIAL, AND IS REJOICED TO FIND IT IN PERFECT ACCORD WITH THE VIEWS OF THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT. "PUBLIC OPINION HERE," IT SAYS, "BELIEVES THAT HE MUST HAVE BEEN ACTUATED BY AN EXALTED SENSE OF PATRIOTISM TO SAVE HIS COUNTRY FROM DISHONOR BY CLEARLY DEFINING THE RELATIVE POWER AND AUTHORITY OF THE FEDERAL AND STATE GOVERNMENTS." THE JIJI IS GRATEFUL THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT HAS EXPRESSED EXACTLY WHAT THE JAPANESE WOULD SAY. "THEY FEEL AT EASE," IT DECLARES, "SINCE THE JAPANESE CAUSE HAS BEEN PLACED IN SUCH A POWERFUL HAND." THE PRESS IS ALMOST UNANIMOUS IN CONFIDENTLY EXPECTING A SATISFACTORY SOLUTION OF THE SAN FRANCISCO COMPLICATIONS.

THIEF AND VICTIM IN PISTOL DUEL

Uses a Railroad
Velocipede to Escape.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 6.—Some time Tuesday evening the Wells Fargo Express offices at Milpitas, Warm Springs and Irvington were broken into by a robber, who used a railroad velocipede, secured at Milpitas, to assist him in his hour. At Warm Springs the robber was surprised at work by the agent, who opened fire with a revolver. The robber returned the fire, but none of the shots took effect and the burglar escaped on the velocipede. In all, fifteen express packages were taken.

EXPLOSION! FIRE! ELEVEN MEN HURT

LYNN, Mass., Dec. 6.—A boiler explosion in the four-story factory of P. J. Harney Shoe company at West Lynn today destroyed the factory and started a fire which swept over several acres, burning three other factory buildings, the Boston & Maine railroad station and a number of small dwellings, besides causing injuries to eleven persons. That there was no loss of life is attributed to the fact that the explosion occurred just before the time for the factory operatives to begin work. The financial loss is estimated at $450,000.

JOHN TAIT TO MANAGE THE CLAREMONT HOTEL

Well-Known Restaurateur Will Direct the Affairs of the New Establishment.

Announcement was made this afternoon that John Tait, the well-known restaurateur, has been chosen manager-director for the new Claremont Hotel. Practically all of the management of the great hostelry will fall upon the shoulders of Mr. Tait. He is one of the most competent men in the business, as "Tait's" of San Francisco before the fire proved. Mr. Tait has purchased a block of stock in the Claremont Hotel Company.

TOSSES RED PEPPER IN WOMAN'S EYES

Armed Men Hunt for This Brutal
Robber.

As Mrs. Grooms, the proprietress of the Star Hotel at Crockett, was walking down the front stairs of her home about five o'clock this morning, an unknown man sprang at her and threw red pepper in her eyes. The fiend then robbed Mrs. Grooms of her money and made his escape. The citizens of Crockett have been aroused by the outrage and armed posses went in pursuit of the daring thug this morning. The man made good his escape, however, and the authorities of this county have been notified of the crime and asked to keep a lookout for the fugitive, by the Sheriff of Contra Costa county. Mrs. Grooms arose at an early hour this morning and went down the front steps. The stranger jumped out from beneath the stairs, where he had been in hiding. Without warning he threw the pepper in Mrs. Grooms' eyes and she fell to the ground, writhing with agony. Her assailant quickly took what money she had upon her person and fled. Mrs. Grooms screamed for assistance and many rushed to her aid. She was given medical attention at once and it is not thought that she will be blinded by the pepper.

WOMAN ATTACKED BY BOLD THUG

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 6.—A robber early today rendered Miss Zona Heckart, the night operator at Desoto, Kan., twenty-four miles southwest of Kansas City on the Santa Fe, unconscious with a blow from a wagon-wheel spoke, robbed the depot money drawer of what small change it contained and escaped. Miss Heckart was found unconscious, lying near the station. There were three cuts on her head and her arm had been broken in three places. She recovered consciousness later and said her assailant was a white man about 25 years of age.

MAYOR SCHMITZ AND ABE RUEF ARRAIGNED

Accused Official and the Political Boss Appear in Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—On five charges of extortion found against each of them by the grand jury, Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz and Abraham Ruef were today arraigned in Superior Judge Dunne's court. At the urgent request of counsel for the defense the case was continued until next Monday for the purpose of giving the accused full time in which to plead.

A dramatic scene was presented in the courtroom as Mayor Schmitz and Mr. Ruef appeared before the bar. "Number 303. Eugene E. Schmitz and Abraham Ruef, for arraignment," Judge Dunne announced as he took his seat on the bench.

A breathless silence like a pall fell on the auditors as the mayor arose.

NEW TREATY WITH JAPAN! SAME RIGHTS AS EUROPEANS!

Another Sensation Is Expected
When President's Further Views Are Given.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador, yesterday went to the White House at the invitation of the President. They discussed a proposition to negotiate an entirely new treaty, specifically recognizing the right of each country to exclude the laborers of the other.

Such a provision is contained in the present treaty, but both the President and the Japanese ambassador thought it would satisfy the pride of the Japanese if their right to treat the Americans as the Americans treat them was recognized.

It was also believed that such a new treaty would please the people of California, and show them that the President was prepared to go to the extent of excluding the coolie Japanese if it should become necessary.

Such a treaty would be easy to have ratified by the Senate. It would almost inevitably be followed by a Japanese exclusion law, barring out all laborers from the Mikado's islands. Our laborers would thereupon be barred by Japan.

All this is specifically provided for in the existing treaty, but diplomatic methods are devious, and the President probably has a definite purpose, which

PRESIDENT WHEELER SAYS: "NO! NO! I DIDN'T DO IT!"

Says That He Is Not Responsible for Roosevelt's Action Concerning Japs.

BERKELEY, Dec. 6.—In an interview that he has given out for publication, President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California, declares that he is not responsible for the portion of President Roosevelt's message to Congress, dealing with the Japanese question on this coast. It was intimated by the press that the head of the State University influenced Roosevelt in regard to his statement regarding the attendance of the Japs in the San Francisco schools, but Wheeler declares that the message was in the hands of the printers when he called on Roosevelt.

The following is the full text of Wheeler's statement:

WHEELER'S STATEMENT.

"To have influenced even in one matter so decided a character as President Roosevelt would be an honor, but I certainly cannot claim it this time. His message was prepared and in the hands of the press before I saw him. In large part, however, at least for substance of doctrine, I agree with him."

SAN FRANCISCO, DEC. 6.—UNITED STATES DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROBERT T. DEVLIN, CITY ATTORNEY WILLIAM G. BURKE, ASSISTANT CITY ATTORNEY WILLIAM BAGGETT AND JOHN WILLIAMS, AND PRESIDENT ALTMANN OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION MET YESTERDAY AFTERNOON TO AGREE ON A FORMAL "STATEMENT OF FACTS" OF THE JAPANESE SCHOOL EXCLUSION QUESTION FOR PRESENTATION IN COURT. THIS DOCUMENT, WHICH WILL BE DRAFTED BY FRIDAY, WILL BE SUBMITTED TO COURT AND MADE THE BASIS OF WHAT DISTRICT ATTORNEY DEVLIN TECHNICALLY DESIGNATES "A CONTROVERSY WITHOUT ACTION." FREED FROM LEGAL VERNACULAR THE PROCEEDINGS TO BE INSTITUTED WILL AMOUNT TO A JOINT REQUEST MADE BY DEVLIN AND THE ATTORNEYS OF THE CITY FOR A DECISION ON FACTS AT ISSUE WHICH BOTH SIDES WILL AGREE TO. DEVLIN, ACTING FOR SECRETARY OF STATE ROOT THROUGH UNITED STATES ATTORNEY GENERAL MOODY, IS ENTERING THE CONTROVERSY ASSUMING THAT THE TREATY RIGHTS OF THE JAPANESE ARE BEING VIOLATED BY THE RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, WHICH SEGREGATES THEM IN SCHOOL. HE CONCEDES THE RIGHT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, OR ANY OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE BODY TO MAKE, WHATEVER ENACTMENTS GOVERNING MUNICIPAL CONDITIONS THAT MAY BE DEEMED DESIRABLE, BUT HOLDS THAT THIS FACT DOES NOT OBSCURE THE CONTENTION OF THE JAPANESE THAT THEY ARE BEING DISCRIMINATED AGAINST.

VICTORY GAINED BY LOCAL LAWYERS IN MINING CASE

G. W. Baker and H. T. Cresswell Successful in First Action of Importance at Goldfield.

G. W. Baker of Oakland and H. T. Cresswell of San Francisco are at the front in mining litigation at Goldfield, Nevada.

One of the most important cases involving mining property in Goldfield, Nevada, was decided recently by Hon. John J. De Haven in San Francisco, who at the present time is acting as United States Judge for Nevada in the United States court, as the successor of Hon. Thomas P. Hanby, resigned, has not been named by the President of the United States and Hon. John J. De Haven of San Francisco has been designated to perform the judicial duties of the United States court in Nevada until a successor of Hon. T. P. Hanby is installed.

This case just heard by Hon. John J. De Haven is one which has been bitterly contested, and involves matters of difference between the lessees of the famous Mohawk mine in Goldfield, wherein the lessees have taken out upwards of four millions.

George W. Baker of this city and Hon. H. T. Cresswell of San Francisco, both of whom are pioneer mining lawyers from Nevada, represented the plaintiff in the action, a miner from Goldfield, Nevada, Mr. George Simmers, and were met in the legal struggle by Messrs. Campbell and Metson of San Francisco and Sardis Summerfield from Reno, Nevada, and the case has been on for many days, and the judgment rendered by Judge De Haven sustains the plaintiff's contention and awards him a receiver, which was the demand made in the bill of complaint.

THE TRIBUNE congratulates Mr. Baker and Mr. Cresswell, both of whom are well known in their profession, for the victory achieved in this cause, being one of the first prominent mining cases growing out of the new goldfields of Nevada.

ASSESSORS WILL CONVEENE
HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY

Annual Convention of the Men Who Appraise Values to Be Held in This City.

The annual Assessors' Convention will be held in this city December 12, 13 and 14. Fifty-seven assessors from every county in the State will be in Oakland to attend the meeting. Among the official visitors will be the Governor, the State Controller, and State Board of Equalization.

The Oakland Chamber of Commerce is acting in conjunction with the local assessors to entertain the visitors.

The following elaborate program has been arranged for the convention:

Wednesday, 1:30 p. m.—Convention called to order.

Evening—Viewing great street parade for Greater Oakland.

Thursday, 10 a. m.—Session of Convention. 12 m.—Trolley ride to Piedmont Springs where lunch will be served. From thence to the Country Club grounds and to the State University, viewing the many points of interest and the wonderful Greek Theater which has a seating capacity of over 10,000. Then on to Richmond, visiting the many industries of that new city.

Friday, 10 a. m.—They will take a delightful ride around the bay of San Francisco visiting Alcatraz Island, the Navy Yard and the war vessels stationed there, and then if the weather permits a trip to the Golden Gate.

Evening—Banquet.

HENRY P. DALTON, President.
H. C. JONES, Secretary.

CAR INJURES
OLD WATCHMAN

George E. Maloon, Night Guardian of the Hall of Records, Is Victim.

George E. Maloon, the well-known night watchman of the Hall of Records at the Court House, is in a critical condition as the result of being struck by a street car at Thirty-eighth and San Pablo last evening.

Maloon had just returned from a vacation and was walking down to the car, accompanied by his wife. The car did not stop, so he attempted to jump it anyway. He missed his hold on the front platform and was hurled under the car. An ambulance was called and he was removed to the Receiving hospital, where Dr. O. D. Hamilton attended him. It was found that his skull was fractured and serious internal injuries were sustained. He was removed to the Providence hospital.

George Maloon is one of the best-known attaches of the Court House, having been night watchman for a number of years in the Hall of Records. He was blind in one eye, which was probably the cause of his misjudging his reach for the street car rail. His eye was put out as the result of a fourth of July injury twenty-five years ago.

CHARGED WITH
FRAUD BY COUNTRYMAN

A charge of obtaining money under false pretenses has been made against K. Tanazawa, a Japanese waiter and former owner of a restaurant at 843 Broadway, by Nishimoto, to whom he sold his business on September first. Nishimoto claims that he paid $1200 for the restaurant, having been given to understand that there was a six-year lease included in the purchase price. Nishimoto has found out since that there is no lease and he has preferred charges against Tanazawa. The latter appeared in department two of the police court this morning and his preliminary examination was set for December tenth.

WITH MEDLEY OF TIN CANS

James Howe and His Bride Were Greeted but They Escape to Dear Sacramento.

A fusillade of pistol shots and the other accompaniment of a chivalric greeted James Howe and his newly wedded bride, nee Ethel Ebel, as they were about to partake of their wedding supper last evening at the home of the bride's parents, 1321 Bonita avenue.

The medley of tin cans, drumsticks and light artillery called to the scene four police officers—Marshall Vollmer and Officers Loveland, Gilbert and Barr. An investigation disclosed the fact that Dan Heassey, a resident of North Berkeley, had conducted the artillery end of the program. The police would not say whether or not Heassey would be placed under arrest, and up to a late hour this afternoon he could not be located.

The matter was complicated by the complaints of neighbors who thought that a band of desperadoes had raided their section of the town.

At 11 o'clock last evening, the young couple escaped further noisome congratulations by taking the train for Sacramento. The knot had been tied at 8 o'clock in the evening at the North Berkeley Congregational Church, Rev. Rathbone officiating. Charlie Peterson was best man, while Victoria Whitaker attended the bride.

Young Howe is a member of the North Berkeley Fire Company, and is a son of Judge Howe of 2037 Hearst avenue.

THEY SLEPT
IN A BOX CAR

Sleeping in a box car last night obtained a free lodging house for Eugene Hildebrand and Warren Main, for the next twenty days. The two men were arrested and charged with violating the sleeping-out ordinance, and Police Judge Smith gave them twenty days each this morning. Hildebrand and Main will spend Christmas in jail, and during their incarceration will be given an opportunity to work on the chain gang.

THAW'S TRIAL IS POSTPONED

Will Not Be Begun Until March or April of Next Year, Says Jerome.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The trial of Harry K. Thaw for the murder of Stanford White, the architect, will not begin until March or April of next year, unless District Attorney Jerome consents to rearrange his court calendar. This was the announcement made today at the District Attorney's office.

After notice was served on Mr. Jerome by Thaw's counsel that a motion would be made for the appointment of a commission to take the testimony of witnesses outside the State, Mr. Jerome, in anticipation that the motion would be granted, set about to arrange his court calendars and has the lists all made out for the first two and part of the third months of next year.

Yesterday Mr. Jerome received notice from Clifford W. Hartledge, one of counsel for Thaw, that he would withdraw the motion for the appointment of a commission which was argued on Monday last, thereby hoping, of persiflage going the rounds about the relative increase in wages and cost of living. My how these statistical sharp exerts my ribs! I catch myself laughing aloud on trolley cars and in public places and people staring at me with sympathetic glances. There's no doubt about the increased cost of living, but there is no unit of calculation for wages except the bureau of commerce and labor which says the average adult hand worker in this country earns $15 a week. The average increase in wages is, according to expert testimony, about 16 per annum per capita of adult population. And one man earns $5 a day while another draws five dollars and still another gets away with $15 a week. Well, we are certainly prosperous around the Bay of Athens. I wonder what Lehnhardt thinks about it. I'm going around there now.

BE SURE TO MAKE A DATE WITH US FOR FIESTA NIGHT, NEXT WEDNESDAY.

A Suit to Order
Well Worth $30.00
$15.00

It is pretty generally known that our made-to-measure suits are as perfect as human skill and educated experience can produce.

It is also universally conceded that we turn out a suit at $15.00 for which other tailors charge $30.00.

So when you consider these facts it is no wonder that our tailor department is kept "on the jump" and our large workrooms filled with busy union tailors all the year around.

Just now our winter showing of woollens is at its best and your visit here will be timely.

Why buy a hand-me-down suit when you can get a suit to order for $15.00 and guarantee satisfaction, also press and repair them the year around free of charge.

Our 37-year experienced cutter is still on hand and every pattern is drafted to your measure.

Our suits fit without any alterations.

Come early and avoid the rush for Xmas suits.

BROKE OPEN CASH REGISTER

Thieves gained entrance to the saloon and cigar store of J. G. Herr and Morris Falk at 25 San Pablo avenue, a short distance from the city hall, some time last night or early this morning. The burglars crawled through a transom. The cash register in the saloon was broken open and $40 stolen. That in the cigar store was also robbed, the burglars securing $44. The theft has been reported to the local police.

George Meyers pleaded not guilty in department two of the police court this morning to a charge of petit larceny, preferred by L. Mortimer. The latter alleged that Meyers stole five and faced the clerk. He listened attentively as the words of the formal indictment fell from the lips of the clerk in monotonous monotones. Ruef declined to arise until the third indictment was read, and then only after he had been commanded to do so, by the judge.

Judge Dunne was some minutes late in reaching the courtroom. The defendants and the attorneys were in their seats awaiting his coming when he finally emerged from the chambers. Two minor cases were disposed of and then the names of Schmitz and Ruef were called. Attorney John Barrett answered ready for the mayor, while Henry Ach performed a similar office for Ruef.

"Let the arraignment proceed," directed the judge.

Clerk McManus handed copies of the indictment to the attorneys. The mayor arose from his chair, but Ruef remained seated. The clerk had scarcely finished with the title of the court and cause when Assistant District Attorney Heney interrupted:

"I would like to know if both the defendants are being arraigned?" he asked.

Ach answered in the affirmative. "It is strange," retorted Heney. "I only see one of them standing."

"It is not necessary for the defendant to stand," interjected Attorney Barrett.

Ruef made no offer to arise, and the judge did not force him to leave his chair.

When the formality was over the clerk asked the true names of the defendants. The mayor replied "Eugene E. Schmitz" and Ruef, "Abraham Ruef."

The mayor took his seat and his attendance until Monday to answer the indictment.

"It was understood," replied the judge, "at the last calling of the case that the answer should be made today. The motion for a continuance was denied."

"But, your honor," protested Attorney Barrett, "the reason that your honor would not consent to let these cases stand over until Monday was because we could not give you an assurance that we would answer upon that day."

"Before we proceed with this discussion," said Judge Dunne, apparently annoyed, "I think that the arraignment should proceed with the other indictments."

SECOND INDICTMENT.

The clerk read the second indictment, No. 304 on the calendar, but when he had finished Assistant District Attorney Heney observed that he had failed to ask for the defendants plea.

"Why don't you ask for their plea?" he said to the clerk.

"I thought," the clerk replied, "that they were only to be arraigned today."

"How can you arraign them if you do not ask for their plea?" Heney demanded and then, addressing the court, said:

"I think, your honor, if this arraignment was conducted in the same way as that of an ordinary prisoner, there would be less confusion. Why do they not stand up so they can be identified?"

"I asked the clerk," Judge Dunne replied, "why he had not required the prisoners to stand. He says that the attorneys have some objection to this."

"They will be treated no differently in this court than if they were John Smith or any other prisoner. The arraignment will proceed and the prisoners must stand."

The clerk read the remaining three indictments with Ruef, 60c value, 30c lb. BEEF STEW, boneless, 6c lb. CORNED BEEF, 6c lb. CHOICE HAM, BACON and LARD.

NICHOLAS HEARING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—Superior Judge Nicholas, indicted for agreeing to accept a bribe of $25,000, and George Duffy, the janitor who is charged with perjury growing out of the same charge, appeared before Superior Judge Lawlor for the second day's hearing on the motion to quash the indictments.

The last witness called yesterday was Ansel C. Robinson. The defense tried to show by this witness that District Attorney Langdon and Assistant District Attorney Heney had made improper suggestions to the jury to indict both Nicholas and Duffy, but like the other jurors, he testified that neither of the officials had made such a speech. The next move of the defense was a attempt to show that Foreman Oliver had tried to intimidate witnesses in the grand jury room.

Robinson testified that the foreman had warned all witnesses to adhere strictly to the truth and told them what was the penalty for perjury.

It will be several days before the defense can complete its examination of the jurors as to their bias and prejudice and it may be weeks before the two defendants are made to answer in open court the charges that have been brought against them.

The grand jury was scheduled to meet at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. No session was held on account of the fact that the presence of a number of jurors was desired as witnesses

Cordial relations with Japan, both commercially and otherwise, are of prime importance to the Pacific coast, and particularly to San Francisco. The school question is really in itself a small matter, at least in volume, for only a small number of pupils is involved, many, if not most of these, adults, and adults should not be allowed in the lower schools, no matter of what race.

"If it had been only children who were involved, I cannot think the question would have been raised. The real question that is disturbing us as a people concerns the rapid immigration of Japanese laborers, and this question we may surely know is safe in the hands of the President, who is at once the well-proved friend of Japan and a thorough-going American in full sympathy with the needs and aspirations of the people of the Pacific coast."

RESTRICTION NEEDED.

"The immigration of Japanese coolies will have to be restricted, in the interest of conditions here, in the interest of good understanding between the two nations, and ultimately, as we believe Japan will see it, in the interest of Japan herself."

"But this is a delicate matter requiring delicate treatment. Japan is a first-rate power, and whatever is done will have to be done with her consent and co-operation. It is best not to be disturbed about the President; he understands our situation and when the clouds roll by he will be found our best friend, too."

would be developed later on.

SOME RIGHTS FOR ALL.

It was said yesterday that Secretary Root, under the direction of the President, is actually engaged in the negotiation of a new treaty with Japan which will specifically admit the people of that nation to the same rights of education as are granted to European aliens, no more and no less.

If it be true that such a treaty is being negotiated, it will never get farther than the door of the Senate. The present sentiment in that body is such that not more than 10 per cent of the Republicans and none of the Democrats would vote for a treaty which in any way attempted to limit the rights of a municipality or of a state to manage its own school system.

YOUTH SUES FOR DAMAGES

A damage suit for $20,000 against the Oakland Gas Light & Heat Company was filed this morning. Louis Brautovich, nineteen years old, asks the court to grant him that sum for injuries which he claims to have sustained while in the employ of the company.

The complaint says that Brautovich was working in the company's distributing station at Temescal, and that on February 16 the plaintiff was working at his duties which required him to cut, fill and insert catch pans in machines for the purpose of catching oil drippings from the upper portions of the machine.

He asserts the work was dangerous, for he was apt to come in contact with live wires, which he knew nothing about. The work he claims was not carefully explained to him to prevent accident.

While thus employed he received a severe shock from a noninsulated wire attached to the machine. He was burned about the hands, arms, legs, face and body.

He says that on the 24th of last May, the company gave him $500 as compensation for the injuries, which released them from all claims and damages.

The plaintiff has since ascertained, however, that the injuries were more serious than at first supposed and he considers he is entitled to more money.

To make the former agreement with the company null and void, he asserts he made the agreement when a minor, and that no guardian was appointed to sign his part of it.

He also states he offered to return the $500 to the company September 26th, but it refused to accept it.

C. M. Fickert has been appointed by Judge Ogden to act as guardian to maintain the suit in behalf of Brautovich.

RUN AWAY FROM WEST OAKLAND HOME

Arthur Sinclair and Robert Butterfield, two small inmates of the West Oakland Home, ran away last night, intending to strike out into the world alone. The night became cold and the boys were hungry, however, and they applied at the home of W. Enger, 162 Fifth street, for food and shelter. Enger turned the boys over to the police and they were sent back to the Home.

CAN'T LOSE COUNT BONI

Anna Gould's ex-Husband Addresses French Chamber on Foreign Policy.

PARIS, Dec. 6.—A remarkable scene followed the interpellation of the government on the Moroccan question in the Chamber of Deputies today by M. Jaurès, the Socialist leader. Count Boni de Castellane, unexpectedly ascended the tribune, whereupon half the deputies abruptly left the house. Count Boni, however, was not greatly disconcerted. Wearing a red necktie and a lavender-colored waistcoat, and with his hands in his pockets, he addressed the chamber after M. Jaurès, arguing that France was continuing the policy of ex-Foreign Minister Del Casse, who aimed at the conquest of Morocco.

Willie Gets His Dutch Up

Oh, but I am mad, madder than I ever was before and at Dave McLaughlin my small boss and the big one stuck in but I haven't got huffy at him but I will tell you how it is—I asked Mr. McLaughlin why they called the thing I wear smoking jacket. So he goes and puts on one of the $10.00 ones, made just beautiful, and he told me to look straight at the pockets and see the smoke come out. I did but I didn't see the cigar he had working and after I had looked for about a minute and saw no smoke I felt the end of that cigar get busy right against my hand. Oh gee, I saw the smoke come out of the pocket alright. But then if a boy will be such a geeze, why let him go on and on until he gets a few burns in life and he will quit.

Well, about Smoking Jackets, I am going to talk Smoking Jackets from now till Christmas. We have them. Oh, gee, I can't count 'em—stacks of 'em—all colors, all sorts. House gowns too, and say—come in here and see what I am talking about—Smoking Jackets—from.

Our Holiday Announcement

We wish to announce to the Public that our store will remain open evenings until nine o'clock beginning December 1st and to continue till Christmas. Our reason for doing this is to give those who are busy during the day time to investigate our goods at their leisure. We have found it necessary of late to make many evening appointments for people who had rather make a selection of a piano when they have some time, and when all who are interested in the purchase can be present.

We now have a complete line of Knabe Grands, Uprights, Combination Pianos, and all the different styles of the following makes: Mason & Hamlin, Hardman, Conover, Packard, Price & Teagle, Ludwig, Harrington, Kingsbury and others. Don't be stingy callers at our house as we are always willing to put our time against yours for the benefit of your enlightenment. We do not claim that we are going to give you a piano for the asking, nor to sell you one without a profit, as that would be an insult to your better judgment. We do not carry a line of pianos that have to be sold to ignorant or unwary people, as we cater to a class who are educated in music and well informed on the different makes of pianos. Of course, we always have some cheap pianos, which we sell for practice purposes, always with the privilege of exchanging later for a better one and the full amount applied thereon. We are positive if you would consult any dealer who has a stock, such as we, he would also advise you to buy the best as it is cheapest in the end. Now we do not wish to infer that we have a monopoly on all of the good pianos, as that would not be fair to some of our competitors, who also have good goods, but we do claim to have a more complete line and more different agencies of high grade pianos than any other house on the coast, and if you investigate our line you will certainly agree with us. We have found by experience that the Oakland people appreciate purchasing from a thoroughly reliable house which does not have to hold out false inducements to obtain patronage.

We are now giving a sale on slightly used and broken lines of pianos that are not regularly carried by us, which we will discount from 10 per cent to 20 per cent from their regular prices. It is a good time to purchase. We will be glad to see you any time.

HEIRESS A SALESLADY; MEETS FATHER BY CHANCE

Atlanta Girl After Being Lost for Twelve Years Restored to Her Parents.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 6.—Until yesterday afternoon Miss Willie Smith, 17 years old, with bright hair, big gray eyes and the features of a Christy girl, was saleslady at the J. H. High Company. Today she is heir to her father, L. N. Smith, a prominent business man of Atlanta, who for the last twelve years has been vainly seeking his daughter here and throughout the State.

The story of the father and daughter is strikingly similar to that of Shakespeare's Perdita in the Winter's Tale, and the meeting between them in the big store yesterday equally as dramatic as that of the princess and the king. Mr. Smith, happening to drop into the J. H. High place, was startled by the resemblance of a young woman's face to a pair of eyes and a mouth that he felt he had seen somewhere before. Recently, it should be explained, Mr. Smith had been given a clew that his daughter was employed somewhere in the city. Without hesitation, therefore, he approached the pretty girl. Questions and answers followed in rapid succession, and in less than a minute the two were weeping in each other's arms.

LOST TWELVE YEARS.

When Mr. Smith last saw his daughter she was toddling in a short dress, her brown curls scarcely reaching to his knee. At that time there was a separation between the father and the mother, who has since remarried as Mrs. F. A. Christian, and who now lives with the daughter at East Point. Shortly after the divorce, Mr. Smith left the state, his wife remaining at Lovejoy, Ga., their first home. A few months following his departure, the little girl forgot her father, but as she grew into womanhood the memory of him returned to her. She often spoke of him, and on her fourteenth birthday she wrote him a letter. This, however, miscarried, and then came news that the father was in the Philippines and later still news that he was dead.

During these years the father's business was prospering. Life to him was bleak however, as he says, and he went from day to day with little interest other than that of routine work. Still he searched for his child. Returning to Lovejoy he found the home broken up and no trace of the family remaining. He had all but lost hopes, when last week his mother wrote him that she had received a letter from "Willie" and that she was then in Atlanta. Saturday ended the long separation.

Mr. Smith had bought his daughter enough fine cloaks and dresses and gloves and other pretty things to last her, as her companions at the High Company say, for two years to come. He had also decided to enter her next week at Cox College, College Park, and give her the advantages of literary and musical training.

"It is all too good to be true," said the father.

"It is like a novel and just too happy," the young lady keeps saying to her friends.

Miss Smith will continue to live with her mother at East Point and see her father every day of the week.

On the left is a photo of Miss Bertha Paul, the Canadian belle and heiress, who in love with Becker, declared she would not marry any of her numerous suitors, unless she had proof of Becker's death. One of the suitors started a search for Becker with the result that he was found. Below is a cut of Baron von Lawkroski, a wealthy Russian nobleman living in Warsaw. The Baron followed Miss Paul from city to city in Europe pressing his suit but received the same reply given others.

SCOLD'S WIFE AND LANDS IN A CELL

Pretty Woman Blushingly Accuses Her Spouse at the Police Station.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A dimpled, pretty and handsomely dressed young woman, blushing with mortification deep red as her snug-fitting tailor gown, while her husband in loud voice lectured her on the impropriety of being late to dinner, caused consternation among the diners of the Waldorf-Astoria last night and later lodged the unfeeling husband in the Tenderloin police station.

As Mrs. David W. Kennedy of 61 West Seventy-four street the young woman tripped into the crowded dining-room an hour behind dinner schedule, her husband scowled, after which he introduced her to his friend, Jack Sheehan, who had just arrived from San Francisco, and who it was arranged early in the evening should be the guest last night of the Kennedys. But there was that provoking, pressing dressmaker's engagement which caused the whole trouble.

"That's just like you, you're always late," yelled the impatient husband. Mrs. Kennedy tried to pour oil on troubled waters by an explanation, but it was only like lighting a new blaze of temper, for Kennedy insisted on being heard out.

She then went to a nearby telephone and called up Kennedy's brother, a resident member of the New York Athletic club. Not finding him in, she called up Kennedy's mother, at 43 West Fifty-eighth street, who dispatched her brother to the scene of the trouble. Sergt. Bailey refused his offer to bail him out, saying he ought to be held for a few hours.

DASHING NURSE OUIZES THE CAPITAL

Resplendent Foreign Servant Astonishes Washington by Her Native Flair.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—Madam Van Swinderen, wife of the Dutch minister to Washington, has returned from a visit to the Netherlands, with the most resplendent nurse maid who has enlivened the streets of the American capital in some years. This nurse has figured in the Van Swinderen family for many years. She comes from the picturesque isle of Wachtoren and wears the gay head-dress and embroidered fluty of the peasant class. Her young charge, a dainty little miss just beginning to walk, is wheeled around in a wonderfully high and stiff, looking perambulator, of the style used for many centuries in the land of the dykes. Madam Van Swinderen, who is the daughter of Charles C. Glover, a prominent banker of Washington City, has induced the nurse to discard her wooden shoes, but in all other respects, she is uncompromising. Her stiff linen cap with flying curtains, her innumerable necklaces of gold and silver beads and her bright yellow gown, round and short and clearing the ground by at least three inches, give the neighborhood of the Dutch legation a cosmopolitan air.

KILLS A DOG LOSES TAXES

Angry Wealthy Woman Owner of Pet Withdraws From the City.

PITTSBURG, Mass., Dec. 6.—Because her Alredale terrier, Mack, was shot and killed on Sunday, November 14th, Mrs. Oscar Isagel of Boston has practically decided to withdraw her personal property tax from Stockbridge, where she has a summer villa, and have it transferred to Boston. This will mean a loss of $2400 a year to Stockbridge taxpayers. Some of the other large taxpayers are so angry they are going to make it an issue in town meetings next spring.

Mrs. Isagel is the largest taxpayer in Stockbridge. Her assessment this year was $2393, of which only a little more than $490 was for real estate. She transferred her residence from Boston to Stockbridge four years ago, so that the Berkshire town could have the benefit of her personal tax.

Mack was the costliest Alredale terrier that ever roamed the Berkshire hills. While Mrs. Isagel and her daughter, Miss Nora Isagel, were at St. Paul's Episcopal church on November 14th, Alexander Sedgwick saw the dog acting queerly in Recreation park. It was running up and down the river bank, jumping at birds.

Mr. Sedgwick reported to F. S. Aymer, chairman of the Selectmen, that Mrs. Isagel's dog was mad, and should be shot. Mr. Aymer sent for Dyer Stannard, night policeman, who went in search of Mack with a rifle and revolver.

Stannard found the terrier chasing the birds just as Mr. Sedgwick had reported. He whistled and Mack went to him like any obedient dog. The policeman got the terrier to follow him a mile up street to Prospect hill, and there obeyed the orders and shot the dog.

Mrs. Isagel had Cattle Commissioner Harry P. Wookey of Stockbridge examine Mack's head. He said the dog showed no signs of rabies. Then the head was sent to the State Cattle bureau in Boston, and the experts said there had been nothing the matter with Mack.

Selectman Aymer and his colleagues insisted that Mack was mad and refused to reimburse Mrs. Isagel. They

7-YEAR-OLD BOY WEIGHS 101 POUNDS

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 6.—Carrying 101 pounds of good, solid flesh and with the strength of a man, a seven-year-old boy, John W. Stump, of Newark, walked into the office of the health department at the city hall. He was accompanied by his father, George Stump, a butcher, who was there to see the authorities on business.

The lad was a source of curiosity to Dr. McKendree Smith, health officer, and Dr. J. W. Clemmer, who was in the office. His muscles are hard and well developed, and the boy is in excellent health. He is not at all sluggish, but a good, active boy, differing from others of his age in no respect except his unusual size and strength.

His father said the boy weighed sixteen and one-half pounds when born, and sixty pounds when sixteen months old. At four years old he assisted his father to drive cattle and at six helped to drive stock a distance of fifty miles without fatigue. He is said to be an excellent pupil in school, but his great strength is a constant menace to playmates, who are liable to be bowled over like tennis balls when this boy of muscle sends out a right or left in a spirit of fun.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

One day recently a young textile worker in a certain cloth mill called at the office of the overseer and asked permission to remain out a few days. Being short of help, the overseer asked him if he wanted to stay out for anything particular.

The operative, who was a Frenchman, replied: "Easier, I'm going to get married, and I'd like to be there—that's all."—December Harper's.

declared the dog was not licensed in Stockbridge and was a general nuisance.

Mrs. Isagel closed her villa early this week and left for Boston. She and Miss Isagel expect to sail soon for Europe for the winter. Mrs. Isagel declared her intention of transferring her personal property tax to Boston. It is understood she reached this decision after consulting a lawyer, who advised her to do so rather than bring suit against the town for killing her dog.

SKIRT CAUSES A RIOT AMONG GIRLS

YOUNG WOMAN CLAIMS GARMENT WORN BY ANOTHER.

Candy Factory Employees Engage in Battle—Officers Arrest One.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—A small "riot" among the half a hundred or more young girls employed at the Nichols-Krull-Daggett candy factory, late yesterday afternoon, was quelled by bicycle policemen, who prevented "hair-pullings," "face-slappings" and various other feminine demonstrations by the surging and excited young women. It was all because of a skirt.

When, after they had been besieged by the throng and the counter accusations of a score, the officers created a semblance of order from chaos, they placed Miss Grace Martin, 17, under arrest, and invited Miss Alice Kettelwell to accompany Miss Martin to the police station.

It had developed that the trouble all started when Miss Kettelwell said she recognized a skirt worn by Miss Martin as her property.

"And is mine, too—my very own best walking skirt," said Miss Kettelwell, as she brushed back loosened strands of golden hair and accompanied the officers.

At the police station it fell to the lot of Capt. Hyland to hear the tale of the belligerents. He was confronted by a tearful young woman.

"I just went to get my pay today with the rest of the girls and the first thing I knew Miss Kettelwell grabbed my skirt. 'My skirt, my petticoat,' she yelled. I didn't know what to do."

"No such thing," interrupted a voice. "You did."

"Didn't."

"THERE'S A REASON"

GIVES HER BABE FOR $8 BOARD BILL

PASSAIC, N. J., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Maria Mucina, of this city, has signed papers releasing her three-year-old child to Mr. and Mrs. William Bacher, as compensation to Mrs. Anna Wutch for an eight dollar board bill.

Mrs. Mucina was married in Hungary and soon was deserted by her husband, who was thought to have come to Passaic. She moved here and soon after the child was born. While incapacitated she lived with Mrs. Anna Wutch, becoming indebted to her.

Although she strove to wipe out the bill, Mrs. Mucina was unsuccessful and finally gave up, leaving her child with Mrs. Wutch as payment. Mr. and Mrs. Bacher saw the child and took a liking to it. They wanted to adopt the little one, but Mrs. Mucina said that before doing so they must satisfy her debt to Mrs. Wutch. This the Bachers could not do because of poverty. About this time Mrs. Wutch obtained living apartments in Garfield, a Passaic suburb. She proposed that Bacher, a small coal dealer, move her goods and take the child as payment, thereby relieving her of considerable expense and clearing the Mucina woman of her indebtedness. The idea was adopted.

stern voice of Capt. Hyland, "we'll have these stories each in order," and the captain prevented a resumption of hostilities by separating the girls.

Miss Martin said that she had worked at the candy factory only two days, having left Tuesday.

Miss Kettelwell said she had missed her skirt Wednesday, the day after Miss Martin left. She left it in the dressing-room at the candy factory, she said, and knew that no one else could have taken it.

"She said she'd punch my head," said Miss Kettelwell, with a toss of her head, "and—well she didn't."

Capt. Hyland hesitated in placing a charge against the accused young woman without an investigation. After this was done, however, she was taken to the women's jail later to be held for trial Monday morning. In her cell Miss Martin discarded the skirt which caused the trouble. Now the police have the skirt.

MANY MARRY BY CONTRACT

New York Law Enacted Three Years Ago Leads to 6000 Such Unions.

Marriages by contract are becoming popular in Gotham. Since the law providing for this kind of marriage became operative three years ago there have been filed in the city clerk's office almost 6000 such contracts. Marriage by contract is a simple legal procedure. Two persons desiring to be married go to a lawyer, or any other person qualified to draw up a contract, or apply to the city or county clerk's office for the regular blank form, have the contract drawn up or fill out the form and then go before a notary public, justice of the peace, commissioner of deeds, or any other officer with legal authority, and there the contract is acknowledged. That ends it.

The contract may be filed with the city clerk or it may not. The law does not require that it be filed; it only entitles it to be filed.

CHICAGO BELLE IS A PANAMA BEAUTY

Fair Grace, Collins Has Lived In Canal Zone for Over a Year.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 6.—In all this talk of Marguerite and Theodora Shonts and their triumphantly interesting trip to the canal zone to officiate with their charming mother, Mrs. Theodore Shonts, at the many social functions planned for the Roosevelt at President Amador's palace this month, let us not forget the fact that Grace Collins is there before them, a resident of Colon for a year now, and a great favorite with the American colony there.

Grace Collins is one of the most beautiful maidens Chicago boasts of. She first came into prominence in the "Fete of All Nations"—the charity ball given by Mrs. Potter Palmer two years ago—when, as a Russian princess, she led all in grace and beauty. She is fair, with dark blue eyes, almost violet, if such a thing can be found outside of fiction.

This last summer Miss Collins spent with her brother and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Lorin C. Collins Jr., of Addison avenue. Her mother was already here, having come on because of ill health in the tropics, but last month they joined Judge Collins in Colon. Judge Collins is a prominent member of the Panama commission. Miss Collins last spring was invited by the wife of the British minister to sail with her to England and be presented at court. Mrs. Collins' illness prevented, however, else she might enter the Amador palace with equal honors with the Shontses, who were presented this year.

TIGHTLY HANDCUFFED AND LEFT FOR JOKE

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 1.—Owen Edwards, of Ashley, the victim of a practical joker who placed a pair of handcuffs upon his wrists and then refused to take them off, walked from Ashley to police headquarters in this city this morning to beg the police to remove them.

He had tried several other ways of getting them off, and his wrists were badly swollen. None of the keys the police here had would unlock them; but finally they managed to pick the lock with a key.

They had to arouse a locksmith to get off the other.

Edwards says Constable McCormick placed them on his wrists, and then as a joke refused to take them off. He declares it will cause McCormick's arrest.

Do We Owe This to Wheeler?

One paragraph of that portion of the President's message relating to Japanese and the public schools deserves special attention on the Pacific Coast because it is evidently of California inspiration. It reads as follows:

"To shut them out from the public schools is a wicked absurdity, when there are no first-class colleges in the land, including the universities and colleges of California, which do not gladly welcome Japanese students, and on which Japanese students do not reflect credit. We have as much to learn from Japan as Japan has to learn from us, and no nation is fit to teach unless it is also willing to learn. Throughout Japan Americans are well treated, and any failure on the part of Americans at home to treat the Japanese with a like courtesy and consideration is by just so much a confession of inferiority in our civilization."

Now who was it that suggested this to the President? Reading between the lines one can readily discern that it was the suggestion of some college man. But who?

A few days ago the telegraph informed us that Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California, had called on the President and been consulted in regard to the Japanese and the public school complication in San Francisco. Dr. Wheeler makes it a point to appear on the scene every time the President is getting ready to send in a message, and to have it chronicled that he has put his finger in the pie. He has apparently volunteered to act as assistant steersman for the ship of state.

Is Dr. Wheeler the man who suggested to the President that Americans have as much to learn from the Japanese as the Japanese have to learn from us? Was it his idea that we will show ourselves lacking in civilization unless the people of San Francisco permit their children to sit alongside Japanese adults in the public schools? Was it the president of the State University who informed the President that the segregation in the schools of San Francisco was the result of "unworthy prejudice" and jealousy of Japanese efficiency?

Dr. Wheeler was on the ground when the President was incubating his message and discussed with him this very question. The circumstances therefore point to him as the bully boy with the glass eye who hunched the President to "soak" California. He knows how welcome Japanese are in California colleges and universities, and was in a position to ingratiate himself a little more with the President by giving him points in consonance with his preconceived opinions.

The editor of the Eureka Californian has been fined $600 for firing three shots at the editor of a loathsome contemporary. This is at the rate of $200 a shot—and he didn't hit his man, either. Possibly that is why the fine is so heavy. The poor marksmanship of the editor of the Californian indicates that he is more facile with a pen than a gun.

A Far-Reaching Question Raised.

United States District Attorney Devlin, acting no doubt under instructions from the Department of Justice, has taken initial steps to test in the courts the constitutional authority of the States to establish separate schools for different races. The question naturally occurs: Why was not this done before the President issued his truculent message threatening to "employ all the civil and military powers at the disposal of the government" to force Japanese children into the white schools of San Francisco? If the President had followed Davy Crockett's maxim and been sure he was right before going ahead, he would have avoided much criticism and not aroused an indignant public sentiment on the Pacific Coast.

The test the President is preparing to institute will be watched with profound interest, for it touches the vitals of our system of government. If the States have no right to establish separate schools for Japanese they have no right to establish separate schools for the Chinese or the colored people, for it would be manifestly absurd to presume that foreigners temporarily resident in this country and having no rights save those conferred by treaty have rights before the law superior to those of the native-born citizen. Thus the President is attacking the separate school system in every State of the Union. He is challenging the right of the several States to control and regulate their own system of free education. The whole question of States' rights is therefore involved, and with it the integrity of the entire political fabric reared on the constitutional powers reserved to the States.

The public schools of San Francisco are the creation of State law; they are supported wholly by State and local taxation; the Federal government does not contribute directly or indirectly one cent to their maintenance. Moreover, the courts have repeatedly held that the establishment of separate schools is not unlawful provided there is no discrimination in the character of the instruction afforded.

The Japanese are foreigners and are expressly denied by law the right of naturalization. Hence their legal status is that of aliens. Therefore the issue presented is that of aliens demanding admission to schools founded and supported by the State on the ground that the Federal government has by treaty guaranteed them admission. The Japanese cannot claim that they are denied ample school facilities, but insist that a separate school established for their benefit is an infringement of their treaty rights. Since 1887 a separate school for the Chinese has been maintained in San Francisco. This has been accepted as a matter of course, but the Japanese take the ground that they have a right to attend any school attended by white children or the children of any other race. Their assumption is an arrogant one that will not be admitted without a gigantic political struggle.

A REAL NEWSPAPER.

The proprietors of a Siamese newspaper have distributed handbills containing the following notice:

"The news of English we tell the latest. Writ in perfectly style and most earliest. Do a murder, git commit, we hear of and tell it. Do a mighty chief die, we publish it, and in borders of somber. Staff has each one been colloged, and write like the Kipling and the Dickens. We circle every town and extortionate not for advertisements. Buy it. Buy it. Tell each of you its greatness for good. Ready on Friday, Number first."—Bankok Times.

How Oakland Is Being Wronged.

According to a statement furnished THE TRIBUNE by Collector Stratton, not a dollar of the customs dues collected since last July on goods landed in Oakland is credited to this city. Prior to July Oakland, which is a sub-port of entry, was credited on the books of the custom house with collections on goods entered for discharge in Oakland. Now the custom house statements make it appear that no dutiable goods are being landed by sea in this city.

This is not accident, it is design. The commerce of San Francisco is being boosted at the expense of Oakland. Enormous quantities of dutiable goods are being landed as the wharves of this city, but the returns of customs collections make it appear that the goods were discharged in San Francisco. In other words, Oakland is being robbed of the credit of its own commerce to swell San Francisco's commercial exhibit. It is a grave injustice to this city and a fraud on the public.

Dutiable goods shipped by rail to Oakland were for a time fully credited to this city, but San Francisco is absorbing the credit for such shipments also. Presently the San Francisco customs authorities will be officially certifying that Oakland has no foreign commerce at all; that while she had some at one time, she has lost it entirely. Thus a deception is being practiced on the public to enable San Francisco to claim as her own the shipping docked at Oakland wharves and imports landed here.

This is a matter for the Oakland Chamber of Commerce to take up. Oakland should demand her rights, and insist that this port be fairly credited with the customs collections on goods landed here. The people of this city have no desire to rob San Francisco of anything that is justly hers, nor are they disposed to place obstacles in the way of that city rebuilding itself and rehabilitating its commerce, but they decidedly object to custom house reports being manipulated to create a false impression detrimental to Oakland and its business interests. Although Oakland is only a sub-port of entry under the jurisdiction of the San Francisco custom house, it has a right to be treated fairly. This is something the Oakland Chamber of Commerce should insist upon.

The sincerity of a newspaper that bawls about the "billboard nuisance" and disfigures deadwalls, fences, barns and roofs with hideous advertisements is certainly open to question.

Fresno's Ridiculous Claim.

The people of Fresno have worked themselves into a state of mind because the Regents of the State University have applied to the courts for a partial distribution of the Kearney estate which was bequeathed to the university. It is assumed that the Regents propose to spend some of the money derived from the Kearney bequest in making improvements on the university farm near Davisville, Yolo county, and this the Fresnoites consider to be all wrong. They are wrong themselves. While Mr. Kearney directed that an experiment station should be maintained on the property left the State, he did not restrict the power of the Regents to handle the estate as they saw proper and to expend its proceeds as their discretion directed. The estate was willed outright to the State University, not to Fresno county. The people down there are setting up the claim that the Kearney bequest morally obligated the State to move the agricultural college from Berkeley, separating it from the State University, and establish it on the Kearney ranch. The contention is unwarranted and absurd. Kearney had no such idea or he would have embodied it in his will and made his bequest a conditional one. The people of Fresno have no more to say about the matter than the people of any other county. They have no special interest in Kearney's property and had nothing whatever to do with his leaving it to the State. They are inspired purely by local selfishness to set up a ridiculous claim that has no foundation in law or common sense.

NOT A PUNDIT BUT PROPER PRONUNCIATION HIS PENCHANT.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: It was my privilege some ten years ago to see a $10,000 bicycle, belonging to Lillian Russell, in the National Cycle Show at Madison Square Garden, New York. The frame was gold-mounted and set with precious stones. But today bicycling as a popular pastime is past, and is now used almost entirely by the proletariat, pursuing his "daily round, the common task." With the passing of the bicycle as a recreation comes the much more comfortable, not to say luxurious, means of propulsion, the automobile and its consequent chauffeur. But it seems the fair Lillians are experiencing difficulty in correctly calling the man at the wheel.

Words and proper pronunciation being a particular penchant of mine, I beg to present to those patrons of your paper who peruse the ably conducted editorial page, and who, perhaps, are in the same predicament as your correspondent in yesterday's issue, the nearest that our Anglo-American tongue can come to the correct articulation of the word "chauffeur."

The New York show man, I should judge, gave it the correct sound, but "Lillian's" expression of it does not show it very clearly in the word "showfair." The Standard dictionary makes it very plain to those who can refer to it, i. e.: Chauffeur, shof fur, with the primary accent on the first syllable. In other words, "au" has the sound of "o" long and "eu" the sound of "u" as in fur. In French each syllable is accented distinctly, but the primary, or stronger accent, is usually on the first syllable in words of two syllables. Each "P" is pronounced. W. A. COX.

Oakland, December 4, 1906.

ANSWERING "LILLIAN."

EDITOR TRIBUNE: "Chauffeur" is a French word and means "fireman," same as fireman of a locomotive. The pronunciation is the same as if spelled "show-fair," with the accent on the last syllable, but very slight. M.

Mr. Roosevelt seems to be among the number wholly free from worry as to what shall be done with ex-Presidents.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Dunn & Co. Figure That the Average Price of Necessities Is Greater Than Ever.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Figures giving the average cost of living on December 1, compiled by R. G. Dunn & Co., show there has been a marked advance in prices as compared with November 1, when it reached a high water mark. In the lapse of one month, the cost of living has advanced from $108.68 to $109.77, reached on December 1. The cost of commodities is the highest since February, 1884. In discussing the subject, the trade authority says the rise in prices is "fairly representative of the greater demand that has followed increased prosperity through the nation and because of the advances in wages which have lifted the purchasing power of the people above all previous records in this or any other nation."

CHIN GIN HELD FOR BRIBERY

Chinese Gambler Who Attempted to Bribe Officers Goes to Superior Court.

On a charge of bribery, Chin Gin was held over to the Superior Court yesterday afternoon after his preliminary examination, by Police Judge Samuels.

Gin was accused of attempting to bribe Sergeant Rock and Officers McCredy and Keefe. To the former he gave $45 on the evening of August 26, and then promised to pay $5 per table each week thereafter. Sergeant Rock took the money, as did Policemen Keefe and McCredy. With the evidence in their possession they reported to Chief Wilson, who caused Gin's arrest. Three weeks ago the Chinese was held to answer on a similar charge.

DEATH CALLS A PIONEER

Squire H. Prather Dies at His Home After a Prolonged Illness.

At an early hour this morning, after an illness extending over a number of weeks, Squire H. Prather, in his seventy-eighth year, died at his home, 1417 Grove street, surrounded by his family.

Mr. Prather was one of the best known of the pioneers who resided in this vicinity. He was born in Randolph county, Missouri, and came across the plains to California in 1849, and has remained on the coast ever since. He first settled in Linden, a town near Stockton, where, at different times, he engaged in the stock and merchandise business for a period of nineteen years.

He then went to Walla Walla, Wash., but, before his departure for that place, he took as helpmeet for life, Miss Mary Holding of San Andreas, Calaveras county. The family remained in Washington for thirteen years, after which time it removed to this city. Mrs. Prather died several years ago.

The deceased was the father of a number of children, all of whom survive him as follows: Mrs. Frances Falconer, Arthur P. Prather of this city, Mrs. J. W. Stearns of Pullman, Washington; W. F. and J. B. Prather of Los Angeles, Mrs. James Ferguson of Burlingame, and the Misses Mae, Alma and Gertrude Prather of this city.

The funeral of the deceased will be held Saturday next from the late home of the decedent. Interment will take place in Eugene, Oregon, where the remains will be laid beside those of his deceased wife.

HOW GRANT ACQUIRED THE ART OF DICTATION.

I called on General Grant and took Sully with me. The general was looking and feeling far better than he had looked or felt for some months. He ventured to work again on his book that morning—the first time he had done any work for perhaps a month. This morning's work was his first attempt at dictating, and it was a thorough success, to his great delight. He had always said that it would be impossible for him to dictate anything, but I had said that he was noted for clearness of statement, and as a narrative was simply a statement of consecutive facts, he was consequently peculiarly qualified and equipped for dictation. This turned out to be true. For he had dictated two hours that morning to a shorthand writer, had never hesitated for words, had not repeated himself, and the manuscript when finished needed no revision—From Mark Twain's Autobiography, in the North American Review.

BOY'S HEAD ONE SOLID SORE

Hair All Came Out and He Suffered Very Much—Under Doctor Three Months and No Better—Permanently Cured at Expense of $2.

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS

Mr. A. C. Barnett, proprietor of a general store in Avar, Oklahoma, tells in the following grateful letter how Cuticura cured him and his son of terrible eczema:

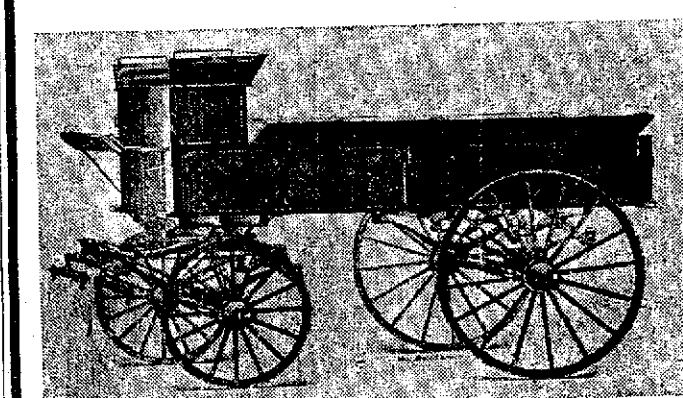

"My little boy had eczema. His head was one solid sore, all over his scalp, his hair all came out, and he suffered very much. I had a physician treat him, but at the end of three months he was no better. I remembered that the Cuticura Remedies had cured me, and after giving him two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, according to directions, and using Cuticura Soap and Ointment on him daily, his eczema left him, his hair grew again, and neither he nor myself have had any eczema since."

As to his own case, Mr. Barnett says: "I suffered with eczema, a burning, itching, breaking out on my face for more than a year. I took treatment from physicians for several months, which did no good. I was then advised to try Cuticura. I took six bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and used Cuticura Soap and Ointment freely every day. I began to improve soon after starting to use them, and when I had taken the six bottles of the Resolvent my face had become clear, I had good color, and all eruptions had left me."

"We use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment in our family now for general use, and it keeps our skin soft and healthy. I cheerfully recommend the Cuticura Remedies for all cases of eczema." (Signed) A. C. Barnett, Avar, Oklahoma, Mar. 30, 1905.

CHRISTMAS COMES ON DECEMBER 25th

But that has nothing to do with to-morrow's purchases

Except to cause them. Now let's figure this thing out a bit—two weeks of working days stand between you and Xmas morning—one hundred and one things must be done and purchases must be made in these two short weeks. Why not urge yourself to come early every day? In the morning is the best time, for at all times of the day you will find others here before you and others will be here after you go home, but this advice is directed to you personally and it's for your benefit—we have reasons enough why you are going to come here, for we have prepared them months ago:

Reason No. 1

Our Men's Suits and Overcoats, our

Smoking Jackets and House Coats

Our High-Class Garments for instant wear—and our guarantee.

Reason No. 2

Justrite Hats

Hats that are making friends every day. Hat or glove orders make the most handy Christmas gifts imaginable—easy to give—cost what you pay—good any time and for anything we keep.

Reason No. 3

A Necktie reason. This is the big

NEWS FROM LOCAL LODGES

Lincoln Assembly of Americans to Initiate Class and Elect Officers Tonight

Lincoln Assembly meets tonight at Pythian Hall. South Pacific Elective of officers and initiation of candidates will take place. After the business session of members will be served and a general social time will be enjoyed by all members and friends of the order who will attend. Several new members are expected to be present and a large attendance of the membership is desired.

McKinley Assembly No. 6 Grant Assembly No. 7 and California Assembly No. 1 of San Francisco all elected officers last evening.

Director Gen. Lewis reports the order is flourishing over the State and late arrivals from Iowa and Ohio indicate a healthy growth in the Webfoot State. Representative J. A. Smith is now hard at work in Petaluma, Sonoma county, and expects to organize a new assembly there with a large charter list before the close of the year.

FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD

Oakland Lodge 123 The Fraternal Brotherhood held its regular meeting last Friday evening at Pythian Castle. Twelve and Alice streets. President King presiding.

As it was the regular open meeting night the lodge business was transacted with dispatch so the members could enter all their friends.

During the evening a late hour and everyone had a pleasant time. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Tomorrow evening the regular annual election of officers will be held and all members are requested to be present.

TRIBE OF BEN HUR

Oakland Court No. 8 Tribe of Ben Hur held its regular weekly meeting last Monday evening at Forester's Hall. It being the regular initiation night many members were present to receive the degree work also several visitors from other courts. Four candidates were initiated and more applications received. The degree work will be put on again next Monday evening in order to accommodate several candidates who desire to be admitted before the close of the present term.

Election of officers for the ensuing term will be held at one of the future meetings and all members are requested to attend every meeting night of the current month.

OAKLAND LODGE, I. O. O. F.

Oakland Lodge No. 118 I. O. O. F. at its last meeting held its semi-annual election of officers which resulted as follows: Noble grand A. L. Koeley, vice-grand E. L. Miller, recording secretary A. M. Drinkwater, financial secretary D. A. Price, treasurer D. B. Foid. Two candidates were elected to membership and after the lodge meeting the team drilled a short time preparatory for the initiation ceremony which will take place Tuesday evening, December 11. After the ceremony light refreshments will be served.

MAPLE LEAF LODGE.

Maple Leaf Lodge, No. 380, of the Fraternal Brotherhood, met at the usual hour last Friday evening in Franklin hall No. 410 Thirteenth street. President R. E. Nickel in the chair.

A pleasant business session was held and the two deputies Mr. Bing and Miss Corder handled in several applications which were left with the committee.

In spite of the inclement weather several very prominent visitors were present among them being Rev. J. A. Batchelder, supreme chaplain of the order, R. N. Chappel of San Francisco and Dr. Plummer and wife of No. 69 San Francisco all making encouraging remarks after the close of the business session.

WOODMEN OF WORLD.

Oakland camp met in regular session on Monday evening December 2d, the consul commander F. E. White in the chair. The campaign committee announced that sixty-one new members had been added to the camp since the first of September and that there were many applications not yet completed which would bring the membership of the camp to over one thousand. On Monday evening, November 26 the following officers for the ensuing term were elected:

Consul-Commander, W. S. Chandler, adviser-leutenant R. King, escort, W. Mackenzie, watchman, C. Harvey, ventry, M. Shrader, banker, W. E. Greer, manager, H. Henderson, clerk, Thomas M. Robinson.

Installation of the officers will be held on the third Monday evening in January, 1907, and will be private, open only to members of the order.

LADIES OF G. A. R.

The sale for the relief fund of John B. Wyman Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R. at 573 Seventeenth street, netted a handsome return. The ladies hereby tender their grateful acknowledgment for liberal patronage.

The following officers were elected to serve the Circle for ensuing year: President Mrs. C. Eaton, senior vice-president, Mrs. M. Scott, junior vice-

OAKLAND CIRCLE, W. O. W.

The Oakland Circle drill team W. O. W. will give a whist tournament Saturday evening, December 8, at Woodmen hall 521 Twelfth street. The prizes consist of twelve hand-painted china, also a door prize of a twelve-pound turkey, order.

OAKLAND REBEKAH LODGE.

Oakland Rebekah Lodge, No. 16, I. O. O. F., will meet at 7 o'clock next Saturday evening. All the officers are requested to be present. The dance that was to have been given on December 8 has been postponed to December 16 on account of the invitation extended to this lodge to be present at the Canton drill to be given on the evening of the 8th in Berkeley.

CONCORDIA LODGE.

Concordia Lodge, No. 153, German Rebekahs I. O. O. F., had a very pleasant meeting last Saturday evening and elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Sisters E. O. Mueller, noble grand, Julia Hesse, vice grand, M. Rohrbacher, recording secretary, Bertha Berner, financial secretary, and M. Berner, treasurer.

It was decided to give a social dance for the benefit of the orphans home at Ghrow at the big Maccabee hall on next Saturday evening. This hall was kindly tendered for this laudable enterprise by Oakland Lodge, No. 10. All Odd Fellows, friends and members of the order are cordially invited.

RATHBONE SISTERS

The meeting of Calanthe Temple No. 8 last Tuesday evening was a very busy and interesting one, it being the regular semi-annual election of officers which resulted as follows: P. C. Lola M. Coulter, M. E. C. Viola Furman, E. S. Therser, Benson E. J. Frances Braun, M. of T. Dora Davis, M. E. and C. Ellen Covey, M. of F. May Harkin, P. of F. Mary Woodruff, G. O. T. Lillian Mowers, trustee Lois Praters. The temple and its officers have exceedingly bright prospects ahead for a prosperous term.

On December 15 Calanthe will give another of its enjoyable dime socials and in connection with it the sewing bee will have a few fancy articles on exhibition for sale.

LADIES OF G. A. R.

The sale for the relief fund of John B. Wyman Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R. at 573 Seventeenth street, netted a handsome return. The ladies hereby tender their grateful acknowledgment for liberal patronage.

The following officers were elected to serve the Circle for ensuing year: President Mrs. C. Eaton, senior vice-president, Mrs. M. Scott, junior vice-

DAUGHTERS OF ST. GEORGE.

Golden Gate Lodge No. 78, Daughters of St. George, will hold its annual bazaar in Klinkner Hall, Fifty-ninth and San Pablo avenue, on the afternoon and evening of Friday, December 10. Many dainty and useful articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be on sale and one of the interesting features of the evening, will be the raffish of a handsome silk log cabin quilt which has been made, and generously donated by one of the members. There will be a dance in the evening, and a good time is promised.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS.

Piedmont Parlor No. 57, N. D. G. W. will hold its regular meeting tonight in Pythian Castle. Nomination and election of officers for next term will be in order under new business, and all members are requested to be present. Grand President Eva T. Bussell will pay her official visit to Piedmont Parlor on Thursday, December 20.

Piedmont Parlor is contemplating many pleasant affairs for the winter evenings and every Native Daughter is requested to attend the meetings regularly.

KNIGHTS OF MACCABEES.

The Thanksgiving entertainment, given by Argonne Tent, No. 48, K. O. T. M. last Friday evening was a delightful occasion, and was enjoyed by a large number of people. An excellent program was rendered and every number was heartily enjoyed. The ladies participating were presented by Past Commander E. L. Arnest with a large bouquet of chrysanthemums.

On Friday evening of this week the semi-annual election of officers will take place and it is especially desired that every knight who can do so should make a strenuous effort to be present.

VOTE FOR YOUR FRIENDS.

TRIBUNE POPULARITY CONTEST.

There is absolutely no question but that QUALITY counts in buying a piano. And there is no doubt, either, but that the makers of the BEST PIANO in each grade seek the dealer catering to and controlling the BEST TRADE in each particular city.

Take the Steinway Agency as an example. Isn't it reasonable to assume that any dealer in this city would be glad to get this agency? There is absolutely no question as to the leadership of the Steinway, and as a consequence the Steinway makers are exceedingly cautious in the allotting of agencies.

Now Sherman, Clay & Co. have the Pacific Coast Agency for Steinway Pianos. If this honor has been given them doesn't it prove the standard of the house? Doesn't it mean that the Steinway makers know Sherman, Clay & Co. to be the leading music house in this territory?

And if this is so, why then isn't it reasonable to assume that the manufacturers of the best $400 Pianos and the best $300 Pianos, etc., should also select Sherman, Clay & Co. as agents?

There is absolutely no question about it; no matter what you want to buy—a piano, an organ or a mandolin pick—you can do better at Sherman, Clay & Co.'s because this firm (on account of their leadership in the West) has the pick of the Western Agencies, and common business sense prompts them to choose the best makes in all lines.

You can't possibly make a mistake by purchasing here, for the standard brands of the world await your selection. Here are gathered the greatest makes of musical instruments the world produces—and the best is none too good for you.

ASSAILANTS WERE SAILORS

W. P. Burgess, a Young Broker, Asserts That He Was Beaten by U. S. Tars.

A daring assault was committed about 8 o'clock last night on W. P. Burgess, a young broker, residing at 2605 Grant street, Berkeley, at the corner of Twenty-fourth street and Telegraph avenue in this city. As a result, Burgess was taken to the Receiving Hospital with a broken leg where he told of the bold attack upon him. His assailants, whom Burgess says are two government sailors, made their escape, but the police have secured a good description of the men and are on their trail. According to Burgess, he met the two sailors in San Francisco and they came across the bay with him. They walked about Oakland and about 8 o'clock were at Twenty-fourth street and Telegraph avenue. The two sailors then grabbed him and dragged him into a lot, where they beat him almost into insensibility. Burgess screamed for help and his cries for the police attracted pedestrians. The two sailors at once played the part of good Samaritans and carried Burgess to the Avenue stables, from whence he was removed to the emergency hospital. As soon as they had taken their victim to the stables, the two tars dropped out of sight, before Burgess could recover and accuse them of the assault. One of those who assisted Burgess to the hospital was a boy named Geary, residing at 618 Twenty-fourth street.

Old Glory Sale Nets Big Price in Sale of Trotters and Show Horses.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—With the conclusion of the Old Glory sale of trotters and show horses at Madison Square Garden yesterday, the total sum of $429,785 was realized. One thousand and thirteen horses were sold. These figures have been beaten only twice before, being exceeded in 1901 and 1904. The average price obtained for each horse was $425.27.

WOMEN RAISE FUND TO PROSECUTE NEGRO

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 6.—Women of Princess Anne county have raised a "female public protection fund," and employed an attorney to appear in their behalf and seek the conviction of John Smith, a negro, 32 years of age, who is to be tried for his life here for alleged assault on Mrs. Mollie Leggett in September last. The prisoners' defense is insanity. The negro, who had been held in the Norfolk city jail for safekeeping, was taken to Princess Anne today, under guard of fifty State militiamen. The trial was expected to be concluded this evening, but Judge Boklin granted a change of venue for the trial, and the prisoner was brought back here by the military.

WOMEN ADD ZEST TO THE TRIBUNE'S CONTEST

CHRISTINE SCHRAMM, Entered in TRIBUNE'S Popularity Contest.

Miss Linda Johnson Leads the Strivers. Boys are Very Active Workers.

That the interest in the Tribune's Popularity Contest is increasing more than ever in THE TRIBUNE'S Popularity Contest is conclusively proved by the splendid showing made by many of the contestants during the past twenty-four hours.

Miss Linda Johnson now leads in the contest of young women, but several others are striving for first honors. A change may come in the coupon, if clipped and sent to the Contest Manager of THE TRIBUNE, will count as one vote for the contestant named therein.

There is also another way of securing votes and that is on paid-in-advance subscriptions as follows: One month $50 25 extra votes Three months $150 300 extra votes Six months $300 1000 extra votes One year $750 1000 extra votes

These subscriptions are handed in, certificates will be issued good for the number of votes called for in the above schedule.

The name of the candidate to be voted for must be written on the certificate when issued and is non-transferable, but if the party to whom it is issued so desires, the certificate need not be voted at until the last day of the contest. The votes published in the paper, however, must be voted within ten days.

If you do not fully understand about this or if you wish information about the best way to go about it to win, call at THE TRIBUNE office or write to Contest Manager care TRIBUNE.

Fred Wille of the Oakland letter carriers is making a marvelous "unpolling" every day and in this he is supported by his many friends who say there is not one who does not "poll" his residence lot more than the other districts also have a goodly number of votes to their credit. It is interesting in the contest among the policemen A. B. Smith comes to the top of the list today. Mr. Smith has many friends among his brother officers. In fact, his way of making friends will be a great help toward winning the motorcycle.

The extra votes that are issued with paid-in-advance subscriptions are the easiest way to secure votes and place the candidate at the top of the list. It is surprising what one may do when they try. A number of people are not using their votes simply because they have not been asked by anyone. Almost every day subscriptions are paid at this office and the subscribers say they do not want the certificates, as they have not any friend or acquaintance in the contest. Ask your neighbors and friends and you will be surprised to find how many votes and subscriptions you can soon secure for your favorite candidate.

MAN IS FREED; REARRESTED

Newton Stangland Faces Charge of Being Fugitive From Justice.

"Thank God I am free," cried Knute Stangland, alias Newton Stangland, when Judge Waste released him this morning on a habeas corpus writ. He had no more than uttered the words when Captain of Police Peterson placed his hand on the man's shoulder and said: "I want you. The officer was armed with a warrant for the arrest of Stangland, charging him with being a fugitive from justice."

Stangland was arrested four days ago on telegraph advices from P. O. O'Brien, captain of the detective bureau of Chicago. The man is accused of stealing $80 pounds of copper, valued at $27. A theft of over $15 in the State of Illinois is grand larceny, and it was on that charge he was detained in the city jail. His wife obtained a writ of habeas corpus, but the prisoner was not granted freedom, owing to an error in the writ. His attorney, George H. Richardson, drew up the necessary papers and Judge Waste gave him temporary liberty.

What is Graphite?

GRAPHITE is a high quality of the Black Lead of Commerce.

GRAPHITE is used for Lead Pencils, for Electrotyping and Foundry Facings.

GRAPHITE makes Axle Grease, Lubricants, Stove Polish, Crucibles.

GRAPHITE is rapidly converted into PAINT for Railway Bridges, Metal Structural Work, Iron and Wood Roofs, Lamp Posts, Telegraph and Telephone Poles, and for Other Purposes.

More About Graphite

GRAPHITE when ground as crude mineral into powder is ready for the market. When pulverized and mixed with linseed oil it is ready for the brush.

GRAPHITE is largely imported from foreign lands, and home production is far less than the positive demand, which is constantly growing harder to supply.

GRAPHITE COMPOUNDS will play a needful part in the rebuilding of SAN FRANCISCO.

Graphite A Marvel

GRAPHITE PAINT makes a particularly durable coating for the numerous surfaces for which it is adapted, and there can be no choice of colors when so applied as a stable and perfect veneer.

GRAPHITE is the ideal substance for employment around mines and smelter plants, for it is immune to sulphur fumes, and ordinary paints are not.

California Graphite Deposit

GRAPHITE exists to the extent of thousands of tons (according to Mining Engineer Walter Smart's report) in the field, located in the Tujunga mountains, Southern California, controlled by the DIXON GRAPHITE AND MILLING COMPANY.

Sole Graphite Factory

GRAPHITE from the beds to be exploited by the DIXON interest will be available for delivery in a few months, following the installation of the company's reduction works (the first on the Pacific Coast) at the site of the deposits; the factory will be but seven miles by wagon road from a railway station, and the seaboard is near enough to the mines to be also utilized.

Dixon Graphite and Milling Co.

The executive board of the DIXON corporation has J. H. Dixon for president. He has been a manufacturer of mineral paints and is an expert on GRAPHITE and its compounds. He has been associated with the National Paint and Color Company, and was traveling contractor for the paint house of R. N. NASON & CO., a San Francisco concern known to the general trade. Mr. Dixon as a dealer has valuable prestige in centers of large GRAPHITE consumption in Mexico and the United States.

L. B. Pemberton, vice-president of the DIXON corporation, is superintendent of Motive Power of the Redondo Railway in Los Angeles county. That transportation line is a consumer of GRAPHITE, and Mr. Pemberton is an authority on that article.

O. S. Wakeling, treasurer of the DIXON corporation, is mechanical engineer in charge of the Machinery Department of Baker & Hamilton, a noted San Francisco establishment, and he, too, is posted on GRAPHITE.

E. D. Bothwell, secretary of the DIXON corporation, is superintendent of the money order service of the Oakland postoffice.

Duncan McPherson Jr., of Santa Cruz, is attorney of the DIXON GRAPHITE AND MILLING COMPANY, and the fiduciary repository is the First National Bank of Oakland.

Graphite Stock Earnings

It is computed on a basis of merely 500 tons of GRAPHITE marketed in a single year that the DIXON corporation can get net returns warranting an annual dividend of 26 per cent on its full capital stock, but it is deemed advisable to limit the entire output of stock to an aggregate which will, at the most, yield $50,000 for sinking fund and preliminary investment.

Profit In Graphite

GRAPHITE can be extracted by the DIXON corporation and made ready for shipment at a small cost—about $20 a ton—and the finished material commands a ready sale of $100 a ton and upwards.

Buy Graphite Stock Now

DIXON GRAPHITE AND MILLING COMPANY is incorporated for only $150,000, and shares of stock have a par value of $10 each. There are 300 shares left of the first issue, and these 300 are now offered to the public at the original flat rate of $5 per share. The price per share of the second issue of stock, now in process of circulation, is fixed at $6, and but 3000 shares will be allotted at this figure.

Among his other pastimes Herman indulges in automobile racing. Manager Riley of the Casino Club has placed him in the 1934 National at the disposal of Tiger. The kid, a fighter can often be seen driving the machine about town under the guidance of a chauffeur. The Kid admits that he knows more about fighting than he does about driving. He has come to take a chance with the wagon as he is with Champion Joe Gans.

Within the next few days Herman expects to drive the big machine over to Goldfield and spend the day there through the mines at that camp. The Kid expects to add many specimens to his collection from the leases on the land, as he is assured of a hearty welcome and the best that the camp affords.

TWO STAKES FOR FAST HOUNDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—Two stakes will be run at Ingleside Course Park on Sunday. The feature is a class event, in which the pick of the dogs now in training will start. In the Open stake a well balanced field will meet. The draw follows:

Twenty-four dog, champion—Huron vs. Richard Anton, Foxhunter vs. Tom King, Four Paw vs. Cheyenne, Rare King vs. Lucy Clair, Pony Capitoli vs. The Family, Roman Address vs. Presto, Bay City vs. Kelly, Wadsworth vs. Mamie vs. Mr. Parton, Poche vs. Elbe Royal, Belmont vs. Bon Am, Walla Walla vs. Friendless Bay, Mr.

Joe Gans and Herman Will Contend for Honors in Nevada's Wonderful Auditorium.

Werner Gans and Herman hook up for the title and a $20,000 purse. It will be in a building that will be the starter of the structure that will place Monopoli on the pugilistic map in very near now and the New Year's day contest has forced the club to build a structure that will have to be modeled after the fight to conform with the original plans and which, when finally completed, will stand the Casino Athletic Club over $40,000.

The arena covers a site 140 feet square and the platform is located in the center and is twenty feet square. The platform is elevated three and one-half feet above the floor level, and is surrounded by a double row of press seats. Three rows of boxes run back from the four sides of the ring, each box having a seating capacity of fifteen. The main floor will be a floorpan fight, will stand the Casino something over $30,000. Immediately after the fight the club will set to work to remodel the building. The bench seats will be removed, the boxes and ring torn out and the temporary floor covered with a second flooring of maple. The building will then be turned into a skating rink and dancing pavilion for use between fights.

For the holding of future contests an entirely new set of seats will be built. These seats will be on the removable bench order and will be arranged so that they can be placed in the building or removed within a day's time. These seats will be supported by a set of jacks, and by means of the elevation desired can be obtained by the raising or lowering of the jacks. It is estimated that the improvements which will be made on the arena after Starting directly back of the last row of boxes is the inclined plane on which the bench seats are to be placed. There is to be nineteen rows of benches and the seating capacity of the Casino Pavilion will be thirty-one feet. This incline will give the interior of the building an impressive amphitheatre appearance and will allow an unobstructed view of the ring from every seat in the house.

Entrance to the building will be through two double doorways located on the outside of the building. The aisles will run down to all parts of the stands will lead down from the entrances to the ringside, where radiating aisles will run into all parts of the stands.

The seating capacity of the arena figures 8,800 and the box office receipts on a complete sale of the house will be over $140,000.

One of the best features of the new arena is that it will be entirely roofed over. It is obvious that, out of account of the great expense in building the arena, the Casino Club is in the fight-promoting business to stay. Manager Riley in the charge of his many business interests during the coming year and will devote his entire time to the work of operating the club affairs. He will act as intendant for the club and will see that during the year 1907 he will pull off some of the greatest championship contests the world has ever seen. Manager Riley says that the Casino Club has unlimited resources, as are the "silent members" are some of the wealthiest men in the entire State of Nevada. Manager Riley says that Nevada is going to be the center of the country, with Tonopah as the fountain head, and unless well-laid plans go awry, it will be found that the future of Nevada's new fight king is in the safe hands of the

MONTANA NED ASKS DOUBLE MATCH

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 8.—Montana Kid is in town with a chip on his shoulder, and expects to make a match before the National Athletic Club to take on Tommy Leahy and Jack Brown the same night, the Kid agreeing to stop both men inside of twenty rounds. Leahy is not far behind that Brown is, yet either of the two men should make a fair match for Montana. The fight will take place between Christmas and New Year, the exact date not having been definitely decided on.

The Ascot situation, while racing itself is not affected, is at present tied up in the courts on injunction proceedings which prevent the Secretary of State carrying out proper authorities that the eighteen-acre strip containing the park was annexed to the city by recent special election which carried. Even should the injunction be dissolved, the new city administration would not want to start a fight involving to a certain extent at least a "wide-open" or "light-shut" city will likely take a hand in the racing question. It is pretty generally understood that Mayor Harper, who was elected mayor on the "wide-open" ticket, believes in a good deal of public leniency. He undoubtedly had the support of the horsemen and the Ascot interests. As the new City Council will be elected by a large majority and it is believed to be favorable to "wide-open" or liberal town, the present ordinance against race-horse gambling will probably be changed within three months to permit pool selling within the city.

This seems to be the general opinion of the sporting class. Indications are

National Trotting Association Decides Mare Lou Dillon
Was Not Drugged

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Memphis gold cup dispute was officially ended tonight when the board of review of the National Trotting Association decided that the trophy had been won on merit and dismissed the charges against E. E. Smathers.

The case, which was taken up by the board at a continuation of its winter meeting today, grew out of the National Trotting Association at the Memphis (Tenn.) meeting last November. Smathers, who owned Major Delmar and drove him in the race, was charged with having been cognizant of ill-treatment of C. K. G. Billings' mare, the result of which was the latter's utter failure to show form in the race and the winning of the $5000 gold cup by Major Delmar.

George W. Spear was the most damaging witness against Smathers today. He swore that Smathers had requested him to open negotiations with Saunderson as to whether or not Delmar would be "fixed." Spear said that Saunderson offered to do the job for $10,000, but Smathers thought that too much and told him to drop it. The defense immediately produced witnesses, who declared that Spear's character was bad.

At the conclusion of the hearing, John S. Wise, counsel for Smathers, made a bitter arraignment of the men who had made the charges against his client, mentioning particularly C. K. G. Billings, owner of Lou Dillon, and Murray Howe, secretary of the Memphis Trotting Association.

RACE CARD IS ATTRACTIVE ONE

LEE DEMIER TELLS OF CHANCES OFFERED BY COURSE PROGRAM.

Barney Schrieber, the Noted Turfman, Is In Midst of the Local Horsemen.

Notwithstanding poverty of entrants in several of yesterday's races at Williams Park, the card was unusually attractive. The feature event, the Filtration Handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, was decided as the fourth number on the program. Horses of class were engaged in this affair in Proper, Rubie Blue Eyes, Lubin and Martindale, who paraded in front of the large Wednesday crowd at bugle call. The smallness of the field greatly enhanced the prestige of the jockeys, representative of the bookmakers, and they accordingly laid a short price against his chances.

The usual six furlong condition races that wound up the day's sport contained high-class sprint material in Ruby, Ethel Day, Woolma, Hector and Lisard. It was the best betting race of the day. Selling races made up the remainder of the card. This was cut-in day and twenty-six bookmakers lined up and were kept busy handling the public's coin.

FIRST RACE—A. F. Elliott and his Ocean Shore made it a straight sprint for two-year-olds. Elliott's gelding was always favorite, and when his price went to 3 to 2, a shower of wise money sent it back to 7 to 10 at post time. Sam Barber, who opened up at 15 to 5, was hammered down to 3 to 1, and had Graham pulled the hat fifty yards from the wire, Schrieber's gelding would have scored. Sam McDonald, a rank outsider, had no chance of getting the show.

SECOND RACE—Those who bet on Orphan to win the second race were held in suspense several minutes before the official numbers were dropped. Orphan, who was always favorite, finished half a length in front of Benvenuto, and there was a question as to whether the latter had been interfered with. Orphan appeared to have in, and it looked as though a palpable foul had been committed. The judges decided in favor of Orphan with Benvenuto second and Granite third. Itzell should have been third, but the boy let Granite steal a march on him.

THIRD RACE—Favorites were much in evidence today and the bookies were hit hard once the victory of Ray Closing at 7 to 5, and laying in a good position to the stretch when the boy let out a second and Gallopino Chestnut, the lead after leaving the barrier and was never headed. Rubie the second choice, made a dash for the finish, but the latter simply drew away and won easily by a couple of lengths. Blue Eye ran a free race and grabbed the shut-out of the purse.

FOURTH RACE—W. D. Jennings' good horse Proper, with 120 pounds up, captured the feature event, known as the Filtration Handicap. Although the big Prestonians horse had this heavy impost, he never left the result in doubt and simply galloped to the finish, the lead after leaving the barrier and was never headed. Rubie the second choice, made a dash for the finish, but the latter simply drew away and won easily by a couple of lengths. Blue Eye ran a free race and grabbed the shut-out of the purse.

FIFTH RACE—In a heart disease finish, Loring snatched the purse from Millie Man in the seven furlong race. Loring, who was the mount on Ferguson's horse and had the race at his mercy, but through confidence allowed Loring to overtake him. Serenite, overlooked in the betting, was awarded show honors.

SIXTH RACE—Lisard captured the final race in a hard drive in the favorite Ruby. The latter met with much interference and was lucky to get place money from Ethel Day.

By virtue of a Supreme court decision handed down yesterday, the rehabilitation of thoroughbred racing in the State of Missouri, was inserted. The information upon which the foregoing important statement is based is contained in the following dispatch from Jefferson City, Mo.: "December 4. The Supreme court today decided that the Missouri anti-pooling selling law does not prohibit persons from selling pools on races to be run in the State when bets are registered by telephone in another State."

The case decided which constitutes a (see case) was that of Charles Oldham of Kansas City, who was convicted of keeping houses for selling pools on races at the Elm Ridge race track, Kansas City, Mo., from which bets were registered in Kansas City, Kas.

Right on top of this comes the welcome and positive assurance that the magnificent Elm Ridge race course will be reopened next spring and racing resumed on a big scale.

Christmas Tide will make good before Christmas.

Tab Aron J. He is due to annex a race shortly.

The gathering yesterday at Williams Park was the largest of the week.

Garnet Ferguson has a clinch on getting the show.

The California club is endeavoring to establish a record for pulling off star shows. Their efforts in the past have been of a most successful nature, but judging by the list of names gracing the card offered for Friday at Dreamland pavilion, their former entertainments will pale into insignificance. Outside of the special event between Rough House Billy McDonald, the slashing welterweight champion, and Harry Riley, there will be no other class represented. The light and heavy featherweight, draw six weeks ago, and another hurricano go should be dished up when they clash Friday. Sturdy Loren Brown, the shift scrapper, has undertaken a hard task, as he will be called upon to pit big wad of mazzuna hung up for the victor as well as a chance to meet the winners in the respective contests. The star bout will bring together Paul est boy of his weight now in the four-round game. Telegraph Hill Jack, furnish a scientific as well as a grueling mill. Eddie Hanton, the well-known light-weight pugilist who announced his retirement after suffering defeat at the hands of Fighting Dick Hyland, has announced his acceptance of the proffered position of referee. Eddie Hanton, the well-known light-weight pugilist who announced his retirement after suffering defeat at the hands of Fighting Dick Hyland, has announced his acceptance of the proffered position of referee. Eddie will see that the men break clean and keep busy all the time.

JOCKEY NEARS DEATH IN RACE

HORSE FALLS AND ROLLS OVER ITS RIDER AT ASCOT PARK.

Montalban at 5 to 1 Takes First Place—Prolific Shows Well.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 4.—Jockey C. Ross, one of the best boys now riding at Ascot, had a narrow escape from death in the first race on yesterday's card, when the horse he was riding, Sixfurl, went down in a heap and partly rolled on him. Ross was rendered unconscious and severely bruised, although the doctors said that no bones were broken and he would recover. Jockey Finn, who shared in the mix-up, was thrown clear of the track by his mount, but escaped with a few bruises and was able to continue.

Ross' accident occurred immediately after the start of the first event. When Holtman released the barrier to send the field on its way several horses were in a jam, and in the bumping which ensued Halton, piloted by Jockey Finn, could not stand the gaff and stumbled. Sixfurl, which was close behind, fell over the reeling horse and sent Ross sprawling on the track in front of the horses. Sixfurl came down on his prostrate body and rolled half over the lad, but failed to do more harm than render him unconscious. Finn, up on his horse, was thrown clear of danger and scrambled to his feet. The race was won by Montalban in a head finish with Blue Bottle, the favorite.

Although the track was still in a very sloppy condition, the weather tempered a large crowd. There were no particular features to the card, which was made up of two purses and four selling races.

Nappa, trained as a good thing in the first race, failed to make a showing, finishing out of the money. Montalban, at 5 to 1, took first place. Prolific, at 40 to 1 showed, finishing strong, and would have won in a longer race.

MURPHY DOES NOT LIKE RUGBY

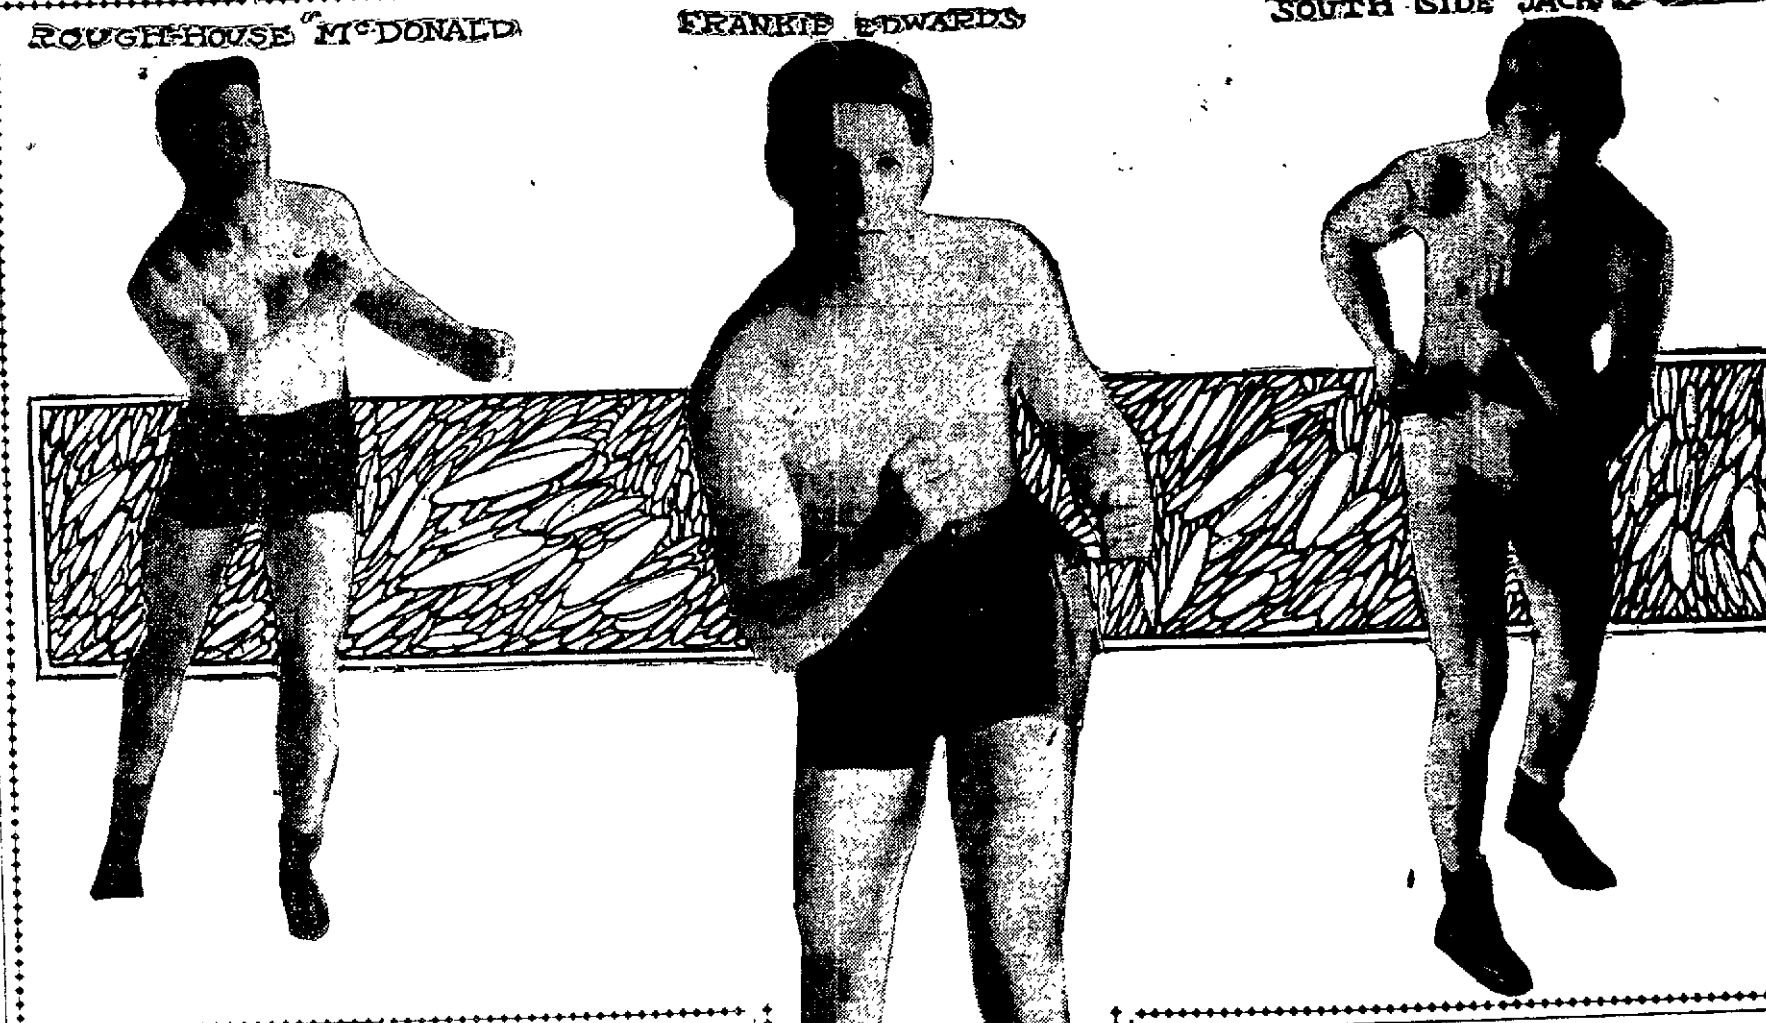

Chester J. Murphy, the former star quarterback at Stanford, has at last unburdened himself on the subject of Rugby football. He witnessed the variety game at Berkeley and on his way to Portland, where he is practicing law, Mr. Murphy expressed himself rather freely. He says in part: "In criticizing Rugby from an extreme point of view, and, of course, with the prejudice of one who has always been devoted to the American college game, I would say that at times the Rugby contest reminds one of a game of hot potato. Whenever things are getting warm you let go. The exciting spectacle of the ball in possession of one player right up to its opponent's goal is entirely missing in Rugby. In the Rugby scrum the ball is thrown among the legs of a lot of players, and there is no knowing which side will, by pawing, set out succession of the ball. There is no excitement on the three-yard line than in the middle of the field. There is no climax to the game, nothing to bring the excitement to a fever heat. The game was but little more open than the American game. During the first half, the ball was almost continually in the scrum. After being shoved around between the legs of the men for a while, some player would drop on it and another scrum would follow. Only three times did California get the ball out of the scrum cleanly to the backs for a dash by the wings, and those runs were promptly stopped by the scrumming of Chalmers, Stott and Holman, who tackled in the good old American style, and not in the approved Rugby manner of grabbing the runner around the waist and smothering the ball so that it could not be passed."

BALL TOSSERS TO CHOOSE PARK

Two sites for the park in which the Oakland team of the Pacific Coast League will serve baseball to its patrons next year are under consideration by the management, and it is thought a choice will be made in a few days. Before the close of last season the authorities at Idora Park, near Chicago, were promptly stopped by the city fathers, and the grounds gave out that the present grounds were less than half the size of the new site, and since then President E. N. Walter of the Oakland Club has been on the lookout for a new location for his plant.

Before leaving for Los Angeles last night to attend the annual meeting of the Coast League managers President Walter said that on his return the matter would be definitely settled, and that Oakland would have a first class park as well as team for the coming summer.

It is planned to expend between $7,000 and $10,000 on the grand stand, bleachers and other equipment, and the place will be easily accessible both to local and San Francisco fans.

JACK "TWIN" IS TO FIGHT FLYNN

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 4.—Jack "Twin" Sullivan, the Boston middleweight, and Jack Flynn, the Colorado fighter, were matched today by Manager McCarry to fight twenty rounds before the Pacific Athletic Club, on December 21. This match is looked upon as a good one, in view of the fact that it took Tommy Burns fifteen rounds to knock out Flynn here recently, but before doing so, Flynn administered a harder beating to Burns than any other fighter has succeeded in doing. Also that Sullivan and Flynn met once before, Sullivan getting the best of the fight. The winner will be matched with Alvin Kelly.

ELM RIDGE TO REOPEN IN SPRING

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 4.—Elm Ridge race track, in this city, will unquestionably reopen in the spring with a running meeting as the result of the decision handed down today by the State Supreme Court upon the anti-pooling law, according to an operator of the Elm Ridge Jockey Club. The Elm Ridge course cost $400,000, and is one of the finest in the country. When the anti-pooling law was passed the track was closed and the Graham test case was filed.

Even the combination book here will find the distress signal when the fifth horse crossed the wire yesterday.

The Oakland contingent headed by Jack Crane went wrong on Hypermile.

Walter Jennings and L. Williams have parted company. Harry Robinson will now make the colored rider's engagements.

Jockey Borrell, who was set down last summer by the Seattle stewards, would like to get a hearing. He said he can make his case clear to the stewards of Williams Park regarding his indifferent riding at the Meadows.

We have here, in our very midst, in the person of Barney Schrieber, the man most vitally interested and materially affected by all this. It means literally speaking—millions of dollars to the Missouri turfman. It means, belated, but such returns from huge personal investments in race tracks, lands and thoroughbred stock extending over a period of two decades. And, last but not least, the survival and continued splendor of Woodlands. Mr. Schrieber's magnificent thoroughbred stud farm near St. Louis—one of the show places of Missouri and the existence of which the inhabitants of that great State take the most pride. And, this is as it should be. Within Woodlands' spacious confines a perfectly equipped race course or private training, there are innumerable barns and paddocks, capable of housing a thousand horses with comfort. Its chief claim to distinction, however, is the wonderful collection of royal bred stallions and brood mares that it contains, nearly all of them sires and dams of famous races. The great Missouri breeding farms, as taken much second to no other place of the kind in the country. No thoroughbred establishment in the United States has ever equaled Woodlands' output of ready made race horses of the past season. An illustration of this is the fact that Dr. Gardner and Nelson earned enduring fame incidentally $50,000 in stakes and purses, and were finally sold for approximately $50,000.

Barney Schrieber maintains three big racing establishments in various parts of the country all the year around, and not infrequently three home bred horses will score simultaneously on different tracks.

Eastern advice is that Go Between, winner of the St. Louis Handicap, the Surtoga Cup and other valuable races during the season, will not be nominated for all the big stakes next year. His only engagement in a big handicap before the fall will be in the Brooklyn if present plans are followed out.

"Go Between" is a light-walsted horse and Alexander Shields thinks he will do better in the fall, if he can get the other day, will undoubtedly be asked to pick up the impost and may, in view of the dearth of high class handicap performers, be first or second in the list of weights for such races as the Brooklyn and Suburban. If he is nominated in them, that he can handle weight in going to his liking is undoubted, but Mr. Shields has no doubt that the important races will be run over muddy tracks. An additional reason for leaving Go Between out of the early races is that he will be six years old and may begin to lose his speed as a result of his steady campaigning.

NELSON WINS NON-STOP RACE

S. F. CONTRACTOR MAKES RECORD RUN IN MOTOR FROM LOS ANGELES.

Seven Days' and Nights' Running Without Rest Machine's Achievement.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—At 10 o'clock last night ended the seven day and seven night non-stop run of the motor of Fernando Nelson's wonder car. Seven days and seven nights the motor ran for almost eight and a half days, the single stop just before the official start being to insert a clean spark plug. The significance of this achievement can be appreciated only by those who are familiar with the hundred and one mechanical parts of the machinery that are always liable to have some slight mishap which would necessitate the stopping of the motor for a few hours. The engine during the 168 hours of the Columbia's run was there any trouble with the motor. One night a washer got interested in the bobbing up and down of a small pin that has to do with the oil supply or something else equally vital. It seemed to him that the pin ought to be steady, and he decided to see what he could do to help along the good cause. The regular mechanic was in the rear of the room talking with George Middleton, manager of the Columbia company. The anxious washer put his finger on the wobbling pin and it sank under his touch. Pretty soon the engine began to slow down and there was a wild stampede from the rear. The frustrated washer "fessed up" the day and by dextrous work the day was saved and the motor resumed its regular gait. Since that hour Middleton has been noticeably quieter in his demeanor and has complained a little about a weak oil or something else of the kind. The greatest feat of the engine had the car been running in the open there would have been no trouble, but it had only the hot air of the salesroom to absorb the heat and the regular cooling system would not meet the unusual demand upon it, but the fear proved ungrounded. There was never a time that the naked hand could not be placed on any part without burning. It is not the performance of running the motor unstoppped for seven days that is the greatest accomplishment of the Columbia. It is the fact that that feat was accomplished after the car had first made a fast trip to San Diego, and had then come back and

LASHES HORSE TO ESCAPE THUG

WATSONVILLE, Dec. 4.—An attempt to hold up and rob two Watsonville young ladies who were in a buggy on the road between Moss Landing and this city late last evening was frustrated by the coolness and quick action of the driver, Miss Marie Struve, of this city, who whipped up her horse and distanced the pursuing robber instead of stopping at the command to "halt."

Misses Marie Struve and Lottie Waters, the latter the daughter of a prominent physician here, had been at Castroville during the day, where they were collecting some money for the Sargent ranch at Monterey. His appearance and that of the horse he rode tally exactly with the descriptions given by the young ladies.

The suspect acknowledges being on the road at the time, but denies guilt of the attempted robbery.

THREE GUARDS WATCHED TERRY

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Terry McGovern, a strong in body as he ever was, and therefore the more dangerous now that his mind has again gone askew, is in a padded cell in the King's County Hospital, with three husky keepers constantly guarding him for fear of another outbreak. Removing the one-time featherweight champion pugilist of the world to the psychopathic ward for observation after his wild frenzy of yesterday has apparently served only to aggravate the little fellow's mental straits.

He was not violent today, but when he arrived a prisoner, held for the customary five days' observation. He woke up insisting that he had won $27,000 on a horse race, and demanded to be released in order that he might go to collect the money from a man who intended to swindle him out of it.

Dr. Charles Moseley, who has charge of the prizefighter's case, said McGovern is in a highly irritated state. If anything, his prospects are not as favorable as they were at the time of his arrest. Until I have made my official report I cannot discuss his chances for recovering his mind."

VALLEJO IS TO HAVE A BOUT

VALLEJO, Dec. 4.—The Palm Athletic Club is arranging for a fistic tournament to be held in Vallejo on the evening of the 11th instant. The main event will be between Ward and Thompson. In the preliminary Hen-ty Lewis of Vallejo will meet Kid Austin of Stockton and Kid Clarkson of Vallejo will battle with Kid Shay of Crockett.

Before leaving for Los Angeles last night to attend the annual meeting of the Coast League managers President Walter said that on his return the matter would be definitely settled, and that Oakland would have a first class park as well as team for the coming summer.

EDWIN STEARNS WILL LEAD PROGRESS PARADE

GEORGE W. AUSTIN, Pres ident of the Fiesta Committee.

Many Merchants Promise to Enter the Street Fiesta's Triumphant March.

The executive committee of the Street Fiesta and Industrial Parade, which is to be celebrated next Wednesday evening, has elected Edwin Stearns as grand marshal of the parade. Mr. Stearns is chairman of the parade committee and had the work so thoroughly systematized that the executive committee believed it to be for the welfare of the celebration that Mr. Stearns be persuaded to accept the responsible position of grand marshal. He was authorized to appoint as many aides as he desired and to decide upon regalia and uniforms.

In addition to about one hundred boats, decorated autos and carriages, already announced, the following will appear in the parade:

The Master Builders' Association, an illustrative float.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company, will be represented by a large electric float.

H. W. Coffers of 54 San Pablo avenue, will have a decorated turnout.

The Building Trades Council will have several decorated autos in the parade.

The Ernst millinery store will be represented by a decorated automobile.

F. F. Porter of 408 Eighth street, will have a decorated auto.

The Layman's Real Estate Company, will have a large automobile in the parade.

The Century Electric Company will have an automobile in line.

Smith Brothers the stationers at Thirteenth street will display a decorated turnout.

Emil Lehnhardt, the candy man, will be represented by a big decorated float.

Goldberg, Bowen & Co. will have twenty-four decorated teams and a large float in the parade.

The Oakland Herald will be represented by an auto and a handsome float.

C. W. Kinsey, the furniture dealer, will have a decorated float in the parade.

The Ingram Hardware Company will have an illuminated turnout.

Owens & Starr, restaurateurs, will have an elegant turnout.

Well & Morris, real estate, will put in an elegant carriage.

The Oakland Graphophone Company will be represented by a handsome float.

M. T. Minney Company, real estate, will put in two turnouts and one decorated automobile.

B. Berovich, cigar dealer, will have an elaborately decorated turnout.

Ed. B. Webster, renovator, will have one large float.

The above do not represent more than one-sixth of the floats and displays for which signed promises have been handed the committee.

There are to be several surprises in the parade. A prominent cigar firm is arranging to have its big float followed by a large dais loaded with barrels of crackers which will be distributed to the crowds.

George W. Austin has three decorators at work in a barn, building a monster float which he promises will astonish the entire community.

The Healds-Dixon Business College is to have an educational float attended by twenty-five of its young women graduates.

Next Monday night the city council will be asked to decorate and illuminate the front of the city hall, from which point the parade will be reviewed by the mayor, the board of works and the city council.

The various committees have arranged for an elaborate, representative, educational, entertaining and valuable demonstration of what Oakland is today.

The owners of all lodging houses and offices, as well as the stores along the line of march, are requested by the committee to display every possible light and illumination of any kind as well as bunting, flags and anything that will add to the attractiveness, gaiety and significance of the occasion.

The general color display as regards bunting will be the national colors and gold.

The executive committee desires it to be fully understood that this is Greater Oakland's great night, and everybody who has the least bit of regard for Oakland is fervently entreated to come out and howl and hustle to make the occasion as grand and impressive as possible.

There will be large delegations from many cities within a radius of fifty miles of Oakland. Many of these people are not yet aware of the tremendous strides this city has made during the past two months. It is believed that the appearance of Oakland's large new buildings with every light ablaze from basement to dome cannot fail to be an eye-opener to thousands of visitors who have not yet convinced themselves that Oakland is today the leading city of Central California.

The finance committee has but little time in which to complete its canvas

SAYS AUTO WAS NOT PAID FOR

Rarig's Attorney Explains Why Machine Was Taken From Purchaser.

The case of A. K. Rarig, proprietor of an automobile garage, and his salesman, C. E. Adams, charged with stealing an automobile alleged to belong to Jack McMillan, was continued in the police court yesterday.

In explanation of the affair, E. B. Young, the defendants' attorney, makes the following statement:

"In the latter part of October, A. K. Rarig delivered a Model K Queen, four-cylinder touring-car to F. Downing, who claimed to be associated in the contracting business with C. H. McCarthy. The selling price of the machine was $3500. Downing paid $400 down, and the balance, $3100, which was covered by a deed, was to be paid within sixty days, and until that time no title was to be given.

"I understand that Rarig, becoming suspicious of the good faith of Downing, traced the machine and found it in the hands of C. H. McCarthy, who, I understand, was the former's partner. Later the machine passed to Jack McMillan, who was a clerk for Downing & McCarthy. In the latter part of November Rarig found the machine in the repair shop of Miller Brothers in this city, where it was being put in order. He then came to me and I advised him to draw papers in civil action against Miller Brothers, requesting them to return the machine, and cover the price of the machine had not been paid. Before doing this, however, Rarig went to Miller Brothers, and, declaring that the machine was his, the bill of $45, which was due for repairs, Miller Brothers turned the machine over to him and C. E. Adams, Rarig's salesman, took it to the latter's stable in Oakland."

REXOS ATTRACT THRONGS TO THE LAKESIDE RINK

The Wonderful Skaters Return With Program of Entirely New and Startling Feats.

Lake side's second annual prize masque last night was the great success everyone expected. The big rink was crowded to the doors and no more brilliant display of costumes was ever seen at a skating carnival. The grand march was made up of gaily and comically dressed couples, extending twice about the surface. Lots of fun and excitement: attached to the races as well as to the competition for best costumed people. The whole affair reflected highest credit on the liberality and energy of Messrs. Coleman and Young.

The passing of the carnival will not detract from the attendance at Lake side for the Rexos are there the balance of the week including Sunday. These wonderful skaters have no equals as fancy and trick riders and the marvelous feats they perform fascinate the spectators. They were here last month and on their return last Monday were greeted by crowds of old friends and admirers.

Elleford's Road Company Are Playing All Week to Crowded Houses.

The offering at the Macdonough theater this week is Elleford's Road Company in the clever comedy-drama "The American Girl." They are playing to crowded houses and there is a big sale for the balance of the week. The play is well staged and is presented by a well-balanced cast including the following well-known people: True Borden, Miss Mota Chamberlain, Mattie Lloyd, Luce George, F. F. F. and the clever Osborn children. These two clever little people give a song and dance specialty that brings down the house. The play will be a bargain mainline next Saturday and Sunday. Seats are now on sale for a new engagement.

FINE WAKE HELD FOR MALTESE CAT

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Friends of Henry I. Meyer, a middle-aged bachelor, and the proprietors of the life boat at 11 Bay Street, New York, held a fine wake for the cat, which was killed by a dog, on Monday night. The cat was a Maltese cat, and was named "Abbie." The cat was a very fine specimen of its kind, and was a great favorite of its owner. The cat was killed by a dog, and the friends of the cat held a fine wake for it. The cat was a very fine specimen of its kind, and was a great favorite of its owner. TO CELEBRATE THE "TRIDUUM"

Congregational Singing Revived
by Pope to be Introduced by St. Mary's Church.

A solemn "Triduum" will be held at St. Mary's Church, corner Eighth and Jefferson streets, beginning tonight preparatory to the patronal feast of the Virgin of the Immaculate Conception.
This feast usually occurs on December 8 of each year, but as the date falls on Saturday this year, the solemnization of the day has been postponed until Sunday. The "Triduum" services are to be made especially interesting. In the music rendered, there will be congregational singing which, after being discontinued for over a century and a half,
has been revived by the present pope his first introduction on the coast will be given by St. Mary's Church.

Tonight Father William Sullivan, licentiate in theology of the University of Lille, will preach. Tomorrow evening Father Jerome Hannigan, M. A., of the Catholic University of America, will deliver the sermon, and Father James Grant, doctor in theology at the University of Lille, will speak
Saturday evening.

At 11 o'clock Sunday morning, solemn high mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father Edward Dempsey, pastor of St. Mary's. He will be assisted by Father Robert Senon, deacon, Father James Grant, sub-deacon, and Lawrence Smith, master of ceremonies.
The sermon will be delivered by Father Francis Harvey, M. A., of the Theological Seminary at Menlo Park. During the canon of the mass forty acolytes, carrying the recently acquired gothic torches and lanterns, will assist.
The choir, directed by Professor Adolph Gregory, will render Haydn's
"Imperial Mass."

Vespers will be intoned at 7:30 by Father Senon, and the choir will sing Rossini's "Evening Song." The sermon of the day will be preached by Father Charles Ramm, M. A., of Johns Hopkins University.

BIRD IN CHURCH ORGAN IS TROUBLE

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The organist of the Second Reformed Church of Hackensack, N. J., ran his fingers lightly over the keys of his instrument as the church slowly filled for the service.

The sonorous harmonies echoed through the church until, in following his notes, the organist struck upper F. Instead of the full, rich tone which should have followed the pipe emitted a surprising squeak. The congregation in an astonishment and then settled back in their pews determined to look as if nothing unusual had happened.

Even the Arthur Johnson, the pastor glanced toward the organ. Only the organist looked unconcerned but deep within him was a great apprehension.
He realized that soon again he would be compelled to strike the same note.
He permitted a little more air to enter the F pipe and then resolutely pressed the key. The same speaking, screeching sound came from the pipe, only this time it was louder and the congregation restrained its amusement with more difficulty.

Soon for a third time the organist found himself compelled to strike the embarrassing note. In desperation he turned into the pipe the full force of air.
The shrill shriek surprised the surrounding two for an instant and then suddenly ceased. There was a flutter of wings. The congregation gazed around as a much battered sparrow flew out of the pipe and perched on a rafter.

AWARDED $5000 FOR BITE OF BEAR

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Walter R. Mel-loy, twelve years old, in the Supreme court before Judge Dugan yesterday obtained a verdict of $5000 damages against John H. Starin. Several years ago, some bears were temporarily left on the Starin river. They were confined in cages. Molloy was attracted by them and while he was looking at one of them another bear seized him by the foot and munched it so that it had to be amputated.
His father sued for $50,000 damages.
On a former trial a verdict for $10,000 was rendered but this was set aside and a new trial ordered.

ART LIFE IN BRITANNY.

The climate of Concarneau is so mild in winter that many artists work there the year round. One summer day a blue seems to be the prevailing note for the sailboats floating from the masts are blue and the fishermen moving here and there are clad in blue. In the harbor groups of women move about in their picturesque dress their short skirts flaring in the breeze and their sounding out of rhythm. No wonder that with these ever moving groups against an ever changing background the painters enjoy their work at Concarneau.

Painters who love the bizarre in place and people find this quality in a marked degree at the island of Ouessant (Ouessant), and in the Pont d'Armor district where the tragic note is dominant.
The Islanders of Ouessant (in Breton, the "Islanders of the Islands") are exceedingly handsome, the women of a mournful almost Spanish type, with fiery complexions, large, dark eyes and dark hair hanging in plaits either side of polished caps. The district of Pont d'Armor is inhabited almost entirely by the Breton people, a strange race living apart somewhat. Monocles, in type and wearing a curious dress embrodered in brilliant colors, slightly resembling that worn by the islanders of Marken in Holland. Of all painters who have studied the Breton people Lucien Simon—whose work is well known in this country—has been most successful in rendering their character and environment.—From the Craftsman

FRISKY AND RISKY.

An agent of a life insurance company one day received a call from a venerable but sprightly old chap who wanted to take out a policy. In response to the first question put to him was sufficient to spoil his chances.

"How old are you?"
"Eighty-five," said the veteran.

"Whereupon the manager, with a laugh,
observed:

"Why my dear sir, no insurance company would take such a risk!"

"Suppose I had been fifty?" suggested the old chap.

"In that case of course—"

Well triumphantly interjected the elderly gentleman. I've been reading the table of vital statistics issued by your office, and I find that twice as many people die at the age of fifty as at the age of eighty-five. No, sir, you must admit that I'm a good risk.—Harper's Weekly

some heavily bearded young man—a neighbor—for a sweetheart was asked by a young lady, if she would not give her a claim also on the young man.

"No," said Rebecca, positively, "I want him all to myself."

"But won't you give me a part of him—just a little bit?" pleaded the young lady.

"You see, I haven't any sweetheart."

"Well," answered Rebecca, deliberating, and somewhat softened by the appeal, "you may have his whiskers."—

Just One Word

Do you know that last year lots of folks waited until the last minute to buy their Christmas presents,
and had to take just
what could be found.
Don't put it off this time; begin early.

New Optical Specialty

When you get glasses here you deal with the makers. You'll find that a decided advantage.
More economical also.

We make the Kryptok, the glass which gives far and near vision in one. It has no lines across it, no pieces patched on and is the only absolutely safe bifocal made.

Every optician who waits on you in this store has had at
